es. Usually the church ordinances were administered imme-itely before departure—children were baptized, or youngsters ıfirmed under age, by special permission, so that they could ompany their parents to America. The many references to ing the Lord's Supper in common before leaving, are proof of strong hold the things of religion had on many of our ances-
;. The pastor at Grünwettersbach even prepared baptismal cer-ates [Taufscheine] for the emigrants from his parish, or sent ies after them to America.

Not that they were all religious, however! A few references
'scandalous lives" occur. Several of the young unmarried ıen brought illegitimate children to America. Hans Jerg her of Neckartenzlingen, was according to the record of his or, "very much given to stealing." We are often in danger of lizing the Pennsylvania Germans, and lists like these will show ıat among the emigrants there were both the deeply religious the indifferent, the industrious and the shiftless. If you doubt latter, read the description of Johann Heinrich Brand of artailfingen, whose occupation was that of "peddler and fish-n." In his request to emigrate, Brand described himself as a r soldier's son", who Gerber writes had never learned a
, and had to support himself by "peddling notions." Or take ase of Johannes Mack of Neckartenzlingen, who, as Gerber , was "always somewhat frivolous, didn't like to work, but trying in vain to get rich by other schemes"! Or Christoph
"a restless fellow here", who left Beutelsbach in 1746 for sylvania, without farewell either to his father or his pastor.

n Pennsylvania as organist and schoolmaster, and has left us a lively t of the province at midcentury in his Gottlieb Mittelberger's Journey
nsylvania in the Year 1750 and Return to Germany in the Year Containing Not Only a Description of the Country According to its t Condition, But Also a Detailed Account of the Sad and Unfortunate stances of Most of the Germans that Have Emigrated, or are Emito That Country, (tr. Carl Theodore Eben) (Philadelphia: John McVey, 1898). Another interesting account, more particularly of rney across the ocean rather than of the New World itself, is the
of a well-to-do and apparently well-educated lady from Herrenberg, mberg, who came to America in 1786, to seek her husband, a nt in Carolina who had come several years previously, and, after ating conditions here, to return for their children. The name of the is not disclosed, but the document, quoted in Kapff, op. cit., pp. 19-ents a most intimate picture of life on an immigrant ship.

These, I say, are exceptions to the rule, but they were "among us" nevertheless. We hope the majority deserved the tribute the pastor of Aich paid to Franz Kuhn and wife, in calling them "especially God-fearing, pious, dutiful, upright, honest, and honorable."

Emigrants from Wuerttemberg

NOTE ON THE EDITING: The German edition of the Gerber lists is in two volumes, with the emigrants listed chronologically under the villages from which they came, while the present edition makes one alphabetical list of the 735c names. The numbers "1" and "2" after each name signify which volume of Gerber the information is from, "1" standing for his Beiträge and "2" for his Neue Beiträge. An attempt has been made to identify the date of emigration and the place of settlement in Pennsylvania. Dr. Gerber used Rupp's Immigrants, but for identification of the emigrants only in Volume II. The American editor collated the names with certain basic Pennsylvania source materials, resulting in the more or less positive identification of some 435 of the names. The sources used for collation are (1) the ship lists, cited as "Hinke"; (2) the provincial tax lists and records of warrantees of land, in the Pennsylvania Archives, Series III, volumes XI-XXVI, cited as "3PA"; and (3) the Abstracts of Wills of Philadelphia, Berks, Northampton, Lancaster and Northumberland Counties, available at the Genealogical Society of Pennsylvania, at Philadelphia, cited as "——County Will Abstracts, [Volume]——, [Page]——, GSP." The lists have been further collated with the Moravian burial records for Bethlehem, Nazareth and Lititz, published in (1) Augustus Schultze, "Guide to the Old Moravian Cemetery of Bethlehem, Pa., 1742-1910" in the Proceedings of the Pennsylvania German Society, Volume XXI; Edward T. Kluge, "The Moravian Graveyards at Nazareth, Pa., 1744-1904", in Transactions of the Moravian Historical Society, Volume VII; and Abraham Reinke Beck, "The Moravian Graveyards of Lititz, Pa., 1744-1905", ibid., volume VII. Lastly, the editor has used Edward W. Hocker's helpful Genealogical Data Relating to the German Settlers of Pennsylvania and Adjacent Territory from Advertisements in German Newspapers Published in Philadelphia and Germantown 1743-1800 (Typescript, Germantown, Philadelphia, Pa., 1935), 300 pages, copies of which are available at the Historical Society of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia, and the Newberry Library in Chicago. The editor's collated material always follows upon the sign //. Additions or corrections to any part of these lists will be welcomed by the editor.—D.Y.

Hauptquellen sind hier 1. das Seelenregister 1748. 49. 50, welches wegen Vernachlässigung des früheren durch die Vicarii von dem neuen Ortspfarrer M. Joh. Bischoff durch Umgang von Haus zu Haus mit besonderer Sorgfalt neu angelegt wurde. 2. der von demselben 49 errichtete und dem Seelenreg. beigelegte Stammbaum der ausgebreiteten Fam. Hanselmann und 3. das Seelenreg. 1754. 55. 56. Diese drei uns von dem jetzigen H. Pfarrer kritisch dargebotenen Quellen sind für den vorliegenden Fall noch mit Hilfe der übrigen KB ergänzt.

SR 1748—50: Dast, Jacob, S. v. Christina geb. Entenmännin v. Weil im Schönbuch, n. 24. Abiit in Americam ohne Angabe des Jahres, vielleicht identisch mit Jac. Gast R 125, da mehrere Dorfgenossen auf demselben Schiff. — Haisch, Hs Jerg, Schmied, n. 6. 2. 18 & Cath. Dazu, obwohl nicht in SR, voraussichtlich noch Hs Georg Hanselmann, S. des Zimmermanns Jerg H., vulgo Meilisjerg, u. seiner ersten Frau Barb. Dast, n. 4. 10. 24. Sein Name findet sich nämlich ebenfalls R 125 (Hauselmann!), also in derselben Liste mit Haisch, Metzger, Wolf und wahrscheinlich auch Dast. Sein Fehlen in SR 1748—50 würde sich damit erklären, dass er ebensowenig wie seine beiden offenbar gleichfalls ortsabwesenden Geschwister 1. Ehe von seinem Vater dafür gemeldet wurde. In EB und ToB kommt er nicht.

SR 1754—56: Hanselmann, A. Barb. n. 17, Cath. n. 20 und Christina n. 25. 6. 23, hinterlassene gänzl. Waisen des Tagelöhners und Kuhhirten Jacob H., vulgo Hohlen, mit dem Vermerk nach America zogen. Obwohl diese Worte nur neben Christina stehen, müssen sie, weil jedes der drei folgenden Geschwister einen eigenen Vermerk hat, doch auch auf Barb. und Cath. mit bezogen werden. — Kielmann, Phil. n. 8. 6. 15 & A. Sternenfels, Pf. Binsch Ammon, Joh. Georg & Rosina, K. Christian 25. 8. 41. Vielleicht erst kurz zuvor zugezogen, denn Lbg 30. 4. 43 gibt ihm, Hs Jerg Ammann, nicht weniger als 6 K. Pens. R 102 (7. 10. 43) Hs Jerg Amon u. Ernest Amon *.

Den Bittstellern von 1771 ist augenscheinlich oft die Auswanderung verweigert. Die, über welche wir Auskunft erbeten, sind auch später noch da. Folge des kaiserl. Erlasses.

GROCERY LIST:

With the accompanying copy I hope I can be of some further help to you.
In the death register I can find only one Barbara Metzger who on the 14 Dec 1758 ~~died~~ is dead. Further there is no birth data here nor her maiden name so it is not certain when Barbara was born

Concerning Jacob Metzger b. 27 Feb 1715, I cannot find in the death register. The entries are very very illegible and often not complete. Other information doesn't exist

Sehr geehrte Frau Donaldson!

Mit den beiliegenden Kopien hoffe ich, Ihnen ein wenig weiterhelfen zu können. Im Totenregister konnte ich nur eine Barbara Metzger finden, die am 14.12.1758 verstorben ist. Leider ist hier kein Geburtsdatum angegeben, auch nicht der Mädchenname, so daß es nicht sicher ist, ob es sich um Barbara geb. Dust handelt. Über Jacob Metzger geb. 2.2.1715 konnte ich nichts im Totenregister finden. Leider sind die Einträge oft sehr, sehr unleserlich und oft auch unvollständig. Ältere Angaben existieren nicht.

Mit freundlichen Grüßen!

A. Fried

WATSON information: Zodack Watson family

Zodack Watson, Sr., of Clermont County, Ohio is the son of Jonathan West Watson (d. 1804-5 in Worchester County, Maryland) and Nancy Wimbrough Watson. Zodack was one of nine children: ① John, who had a daughter Sophia and a son West; ② Jonathan, who had a son John; ③ Major of Georgia, who also had a son John; ④ Zodack of Kentucky and later Ohio; ⑤ Charity, who married a Melvin; ⑥ Rebecca, who married a Jones; ⑦ Delany; ⑧ Agnes, who married in 1801 Levin Pilchard and ⑨ Mary, who married Jacob Waterfield, Sr.

Zodack Watson, Sr. Along with Jacob Waterfield, Sr. and probably a cousin or uncle Zedikiah emigrated from Maryland approximately 1788 and settled near Lexington, Kentucky. Then about the mid 1790's Zodack and Zedikiah came to the Clermont County area and settled near Felicity. In 1798 Mary Waterfield, then a widow, and her eight year old son, Jacob, Jr., joined her brother Zodack near Felicity. According to Beers "Brown Co. History" she died here at an advanced age.

In July, 1801, Zodack moved to a portion of the Garrett Prather farm. It is also noted that he had a very large family. There is very little information on how many or who his children were except that he had a ① son John, a bachelor who died in 1865 and it is known there was a ② Zodack, Jr. who married Polly Miller, a daughter of George (b. 10/14/1788) and Susan Moyers Miller (9/14/1792-11/11/1876). A sister of Polly's, Melinda W. married a James Watson who might have been a brother of Zodack, Jr.

About Zedikiah Watson even less is known. His wife was Hannah M. Watson and there was at least two children born to this union. Zedikiah, Jr. and Nancy (5/31/1815-1/14/1882) who married Joseph Metzger (b. 8/16/1817) in March, 1838. Nancy and Joseph had 11 children. Six of these children were living in 1883.

Zedikiah was a property holder in 1826 in Franklin Twp., Clermont Co. and either he or his son served in the Civil War. This must have been Zedikiah, Jr. though even he must have been at least 40 at the time. A Zed. Watson is listed on the roster as having served in Co. I 22nd. Reg. Ohio Inf. under Captain Farron Olmstead, as did a Corporal John Watson.

COMPTON, or all cousins related lineages in Kentucky to the year 1880. The history of southern Ohio seems to indicate a heritage which was begun in New Jersey. I think the same will be found true in Kentucky. Would all those who have added data or information on these family names, going back into early New Jersey records please write Mr. Tinney. He hopes to assist and be assisted with these lineages as they relate to Kentucky ancestry.

and Robins Mapp. Charles West himself had never lived here, but at MYRTLE GROVE (N52K), which he also left to his son Charles. A few years ago an old ledger was found in the garret there and a study of the entries in it indicate that a store, as well as a tavern, was involved. The two businesses had been operated under the name of Mapp & West and the names in the ledger showed that the customers were all from the Johnsontown vicinity, instead of that of MYRTLE GROVE.

1838 After the intestate death of W. W. West, commissioners sold his holdings including the tavern to the above Nottingham and Mapp, who had bought the store. JOHNSONTOWN TAVERN had a number of owners as the years went on until 1890 when it was bought by Richard S. Floyd. Just when it ceased to function as a tavern is unknown. It is reasonable to believe that the house was built by the first Johannes Johnson when he made his major purchase from Clegg, probably as a home rather than a tavern. The original part of the present house has two brick ends with semi-outside chimneys. The framing is of black walnut instead of the heart pine customary in this section. At one time there was a cross hall but the partition on the parlor side has been removed and the stairs are enclosed. The parlor has wainscoting and cornice and is paneled to the ceiling above the fireplace. At one time there was a chimney closet at each side of the fireplace.

Holloway Upper Part of 550 acres

As reported, the unborn child who inherited seems to have been a daughter Priscilla who married one William Stevens. 1669 Stevens (no wife) sold 300 acres to Thomas Jacob, but no record was found of any further disposition by Stevens.

It is quite possible that he is the same man of that name who had settled on his REHOBOTH plantation in Somerset County even before the date of the above sale. He is mentioned further in connection with A57, A159A and A170.

1676 Jacob left to his sons Abraham and Thomas. 1700 They received a patent for 400 acres[6] of the Holloway land as having been deserted and escheated, and while no bounds were given in the document, presumably it was for their inherited land. 1708 Thomas Jacob, Jr., left his part to his brother Abraham. 1726 Abraham Jacob received a patent for the whole 550 acres[7] of Holloway land as having escheated from Priscilla Stevens. However, sales from the acreage had been made even before 1700 and the less important ones will be eliminated first.

1697 Thomas Jacob sold 60 acres to Michael Morgan and his brother Abraham confirmed the sale the next year. 1704 Morgan and his wife Mary resold to John Evans, but after that the record is a blank.

1715 Abraham Jacob sold 60 acres to Clarke Nottingham. Description indicates that this is the same land which had been bought by Morgan and sold to Evans, so it must have reverted to Jacob in some way. 1736 Nottingham (wife Mary) left to Matthew Harmanson and it became merged with N56 which he then owned.

1725 Abraham Jacob sold 50 acres to James Forse (N49) and six years later he left to his wife Margaret (Savage). 1737 No disposition by Margaret was found but in this year John Waterfield sold the same land to Thomas Willand, but nothing more about him appeared.

1697 Abraham and Elizabeth Jacob sold 50 acres to John Dunton. 1720 He (wife Elizabeth) left to his son Stephen. 1742 He sold as 70 acres to Azell Benthall and seven years later a new deed was given by Stephen Dunton and his wife Isbell. It became merged with other Benthall lands to be reported next.

1698 Abraham and Elizabeth Jacob sold 100 acres to Daniel Benthall. 1711 Abraham alone sold him 40 acres more. 1719 Benthall (wife Frances) left to his son Azell who bought the above piece. 1790 The will of Azell Benthall (a grandfather with no living wife) directed that his land be sold. No such sale was found, but it is believed that the property remained in the family by some unrecorded agreement and that it went to a granddaughter Anne who became the widow of William Waterfield. Disposition appears in the story of the next piece.

1713 Abraham Jacob and a second wife Mary sold 50 acres to John Waterfield, and this was followed three years later by two more deeds for 100 acres and 50 acres more. 1748 Waterfield (wife Esther) left all his lands to his son John. 1772 He (wife Mary) left to his son William. Marriage bonds reveal that in 1759 Azariah Hunt had married Frances the daughter of Azell Benthall and that in 1779 their daughter Nancy had married William Waterfield. 1788 William Waterfield also owned land across the road which he bequeathed otherwise, but he left "where my mother lives & £100 to build a house" to his wife Anne until son John became twenty-one and then it was to be divided between Anne and her two children. No such division was ever found.

1799 Nathaniel and Frances Goffigon sold 230 acres to Patrick Harmanson. Their title is not clear, but it may be noted that in 1744 a Benjamin Dunton mentioned a grandson William Waterfield and a granddaughter Frances Waterfield. Nathaniel Goffigon married a Frances Dunton in 1772 and she may have been born a Waterfield and was a widow at the time of this marriage.

1806 John and Elizabeth Waterfield sold 89½ acres to Matthew Guy and the deed bounded the land on the north and east by the land of Patrick Harmanson which had been bought from an heir of William Waterfield. The Guy land was not followed further but some time later Harmanson sold his to William Jarvis.

1705 Joseph Benthall received a patent for 33 acres[8] escheated from Priscilla Stevens. How this little piece got away from Abraham Jacob is not clear, but perhaps it was excess land. It was located prominently on the west side of the road at Bridgetown. Benthall gave it to his sons Thomas and William.

William Benthall Part

1730 Harmanson and Rachaell Gascoigne sold to Daniel Godwin, saying that William Benthall had died intestate and that his interest had passed to his daughter Rachaell. 1731 Daniel and Alicia Godwin sold as 18 acres to Matthew Harmanson. 1749 He sold as 12 acres to Samuel Grafton. 1752 He (wife Hannah) directed in his will that his land be sold, but no disposition was found.

Thomas Benthall Part

1734 He and his wife Anne sold their interest to Peter Bowdoin, who left to his son John and he in turn to his son John. 1779 John Bowdoin sold 11½ acres to John Bloxom.

N56

1637 Patent to the Reverend William Cotton (N35) for 350 acres[1] called "the old man's neck." 1640 The will of Cotton (wife Ann Graves) did not mention this land. 1642 Ann had married Nathaniel Eaton as her second husband and they had assigned their rights to John Holloway who in this year received a patent for 1,300 acres[2] to include both N55 and N56. However, this assignment by the Eatons to Holloway did not hold good, as when Cotton died his wife Ann was pregnant and a daughter Verlinda was born later. She married Thomas Burdett and naturally claimed the land as heir to her father. 1668 Verlinda Burdett, widow of Thomas, of Maryland, gave a power of attorney to John Custis to acknowledge a deed of sale from her to William Stevens for "the old acres[5] as having been escheated from John Nutwell [Nuthall]. 1710 Joseph and Mary Benthall deeded the Spencer 150 acres to another son William. An exact line of division between the holdings of the sons Joseph and William Benthall is not practical, but in general William was on the west side along the present bayside road.

William Benthall Part

1730 At some unknown date William had died intestate and the title had passed to a daughter Rachaell and she and her husband Harmanson Gascoigne now sold to Daniel Godwin. 1746 Daniel and Elissa Godwin sold to John Waterfield.

1748 Waterfield (wife Esther) left all of his lands to his son John, as also reported in the story of part of N55. 1772 This son John left to his wife Mary and then to his son William. 1781 Beginning in this year, William and Anne Waterfield sold some small lots in or close to the old town, and later his executor sold 130 acres to Smith Snead, who also became possessed of the Joseph Benthall part.

Joseph Benthall Part

1734 After the death of Joseph, his part had descended to a son Thomas and he and his wife Anne now sold to Peter Bowdoin. 1745 Bowdoin deeded to Comfort Waterson as consideration for her having deeded to him her inherited parts of N25 and N35, and she later married Thomas Michael. 1759 Michael (wife now an Ann) left to his son John. 1775 John Michael, Jr., sold as 155 acres to Michael Christian, who also acquired N69. 1783 Christian left the part of that tract extending from the road up to Church Creek to his daughter Margaret, and to his daughter Rose he left the part south of the road, together with the 155 acres bought from Michael. The former will be reported in its proper place.[1] Rosetta Christian married Smith Snead, who five years later bought the William Benthall part so he then owned all of this tract plus the part of N69 between the branch and the road. 1792 He left these lands to his son Charles Snead. 1812 He sold as 415 acres to Smith Nottingham and three years later his widow Sally T. Snead of Richmond released her dower rights to Nottingham. Some years later Major S. Pitts, who had acquired the balance of N69, bought 83 acres of the Nottingham land between the road and the branch, so that part went back whence it came.

1653 Patent to Michael Ricketts for 200 acres.[1] A few years later an undated patent was issued to Thomas Boutracie,[2] stating that Ricketts had assigned to Elias Hartree, he back to Ricketts, and then he to Boutracie. 1688 Thomas Bullock, heir of Thomas, sold to William Waterfield. 1705 Patent to Waterfield[3] as escheated from Boutracie. 1720 Waterfield left to his son Jacob. 1766 No land mentioned in the will of Jacob Waterfield. 1773 John and Margaret Waterfield sold the 200 acres to William Ronald, saying that he had bought from his father Jacob (no record). 1789 William and Catharine Ronald of Powhatan joined with McKeil and Betty Bonewell of Accomack in a sale to John Stringer of 208 acres by survey (not found). The deed stated that the land had been in contest in various courts for a number of years between Ronald and Bonewell. 1795 John Stringer, Sr., left to his daughter Elizabeth who married William Satchell. 1806 The Satchells sold 30½ acres at the west end to Thomas Parramore, to become merged with N68, and three years later 137 acres to Nathaniel Simkins. No survey for any part of this tract is of record, so as shown on the patent map it is conjectural, but the bounds given there should be fairly close to the actual ones.

1645 Patent to Richard Jacob for 300 acres.[1] 1650 Another patent for 250 acres[2] adjacent. 1663 Jacob (wife Mary) left this home plantation to a son Phillip. The widow Mary Jacob made a marriage agreement with Arthur Upshott [Upshur]. As told in the story of N66 she first had been the wife of Marke Hamond and in a list of his head rights filed with the Court he had included "Anne Dennis, my first wife" and "Mary Clarke, my now wife." She may have been the daughter of Dr. George Clarke (N30) but unfortunately he died intestate so the names of his children, other than a son George, are unknown. She is buried at Warwick (A7), a later Upshur home. 1674 Phillip and Martha Jacob exchanged this 550 acres with Arthur Upshott for the 350 acres across the road which was a part of N66. 1709 Arthur Upshur of Accomack left the 300-acres home part to his daughter Ann and her husband Benjamin Dolby for their lives and then to his son Abel Upshur, and he left the other 250 acres directly to Abel. 1754 Abel Upshur (A7) left the 550 acres to his son John. The latter's first wife Ann Emerson is buried in the yard near the house, having died November 9th, 1775, at the age of thirty.

George Matthews Part

1751 He also deeded back to the Stockleys and the next day they redeeded to George's son Isaiah. A record of the latter's death was not noted, but in 1823 the same land was surveyed for division among the heirs of a George Matthews, Jr.; it showed 110 acres, which were divided equally between Meshack Matthews and Jacob Waterfield in right of his wife Nancy.

NOTE–A145

A146

This was the land covered by the patent to John Stringer in 1673 for the inland 1,050 acres,[1] which the next year he exchanged with William Taylor, along with his part of A141, for the A10 tract owned by Taylor.

1695 Jonathan Owen sold 40 acres to Joseph Blake, but two years later, it was deeded back, and in that document Blake included "all above the earth to heaven and down below the earth to hell." 1717 Jonathan Owen (wife Mary) left 120 acres each to his sons Timothy and Jonathan.

Timothy Owen Part

1720 He left to his wife Patience and then to a daughter Mary; what became of the latter was undetermined, but before long, the Watts family appeared in this vicinity, and finally in 1831 a David Watts sold 122 acres to Savage Taylor, and a survey placed it where Timothy Owen's land should have been.

Jonathan Owen Part

1758 He (wife Rachel) left this home place to a son Peter, who died intestate two years later, leaving a widow Elizabeth and a son Samuel as heir-at-law. 1792 Samuel died intestate, and his estate was administered to a John Thornton, the reason for which is not clear. A few years later surveys for adjacent lands showed a Joshua Thornton to be the owner of this.

1687 William Taylor left the southern 450 acres, which he called QUEEN HIVE plantation, to his son Elias, and the balance between that and the Kennet land to his son William. 1703 William Taylor II sold his 400 acres to his brother Elias. 1711 Elias and Ann Taylor sold 3 acres to Charles Vanelson, this little p. 235 HEINRICH or HENRY BAUM was one of a family of five brothers and two sisters born in Wurtemberg, Germany, of which four of the brothers and one sister emigrated to America and settled in Bucks Co.; viz: Carl or Charles, Heinrich, Michael, Susanna and Philip Baum. Carl and Heinrich came together in the sip "Hero", arriving in Philadelphia October 27, 1764; and settled in Springfield township. Carl, the eldest of the family, married BARBARA YOUNGKEN, and after a residence of several years in Springfield removed with his family to Carlisle, Cumberland Co., Pa., and from there to what was then Northumberland co and from there thence, in 1798, to Northwestern Territory, now the State of Ohio, where he died. His son, Samuel, born in Springfield, Bucks county, August 16, 1769, died in New Berlin, Union co., Pa. Oct. 2, 1842. His other eight children, most of whom lived and died in Felicity, Ohio, were: Elizabeth, wife of Peter Emery; Catharine, wife of Benjamin Sells; Mary, wife of Peter DeWitt; Susanna, wife of Thomas Jones; Margaret wife of Conrad Metzgar; Barbara, wife of Leonard Metzgar; Michael and Charles Baum.

Rwf.: History of Bucks Co., Pa.

Heinrich Baum, the second of the emigrant brothers, as before stated, arrived in this country in 1764, and almost immediately after his arrival he located in Springfield township, where he took hp a tract of land on which he resided until his death in 1803. Hiw wife's name was Elizabeth, but her maiden name is unknown by her descendants. They were the parents of eleven children. All of whom were born and reared in Springfield, viz: Abraham, Anna who married John Landis and removed to Warren Co., N.J.; Susanna who married Isaac Meyer, of Springfield; Elizabeth, who married Henry Ackerman; Henry; Catharine was married to Samuel Bleam; Hannah who married John Shelly; Margaret who married Henry Bleam; Barbara who married Michael Huddle, Philip, who died in 1814 without issue and Mary who married Joseph Moyer, and died in 1815.

Georg Peter Baum probably came to Philadelphia with his father, Georg Simon Baum on the Shirley in 1751. In 1760 he bought from his father the tract, Long Hill, which had originally ben warranted to David Lau in Maryland, and had it patented. This record shows that in 1754 he married Susanna Margaret, daughter of Daniel Zapp (Zapf, Zepp). In 1764 he and Jacob Sapp, had a survey made of the tract called Old Germany sough of the church in Maryland, which tract they later assigned to the famous ironmasters George Ross, George Stevenson, and William Thompson of Pennsylvania.

HOW TO USE THIS VOLUME

This index contains 4,430 names of the taxables who lived in Lancaster County prior to the Federal Census of 1790. There are seventeen townships included as well as the borough of Lancaster. Those divisions are listed here along with the number of inhabitants who were taxed.

Brecknock	131	Lancaster Borough	596
Caernarvon	121	Lancaster Township	70
Cocalico	437	Leacock	252
Colerain	105	Manheim	144
Donegal	266	Manor	281
Earl	465	Mount Joy	158
Elizabeth	92	Sadsbury	98
Hempfield	249	Strasburg	293
Lampeter	245	Warwick	427

We cannot stress strongly enough that to use this index to your best advantage you must check all variations of the spelling of the family name. The people taking the taxes were NOT careful with their spelling and the spelling of a family name varied on the individual lists as well as from township to township. The name we know as Brubaker appears as Brubacher, Brubacker, and even as Prupacker. Eshelman appears as Ashelman. Bair is spelled in many ways also--Baer, Bare, and Bear to mention a few. In retaining the original spellings from the tax lists we have tried to avoid any possible misinterpretation of a name and leave it up to the researcher to further check the original records of other years if necessary, to verify a family name.

This index contains not only the name of the individual taxed, but also the township or borough of residence (PL), the year from which the record was taken (YR), the taxable's classification (CLS), an indication of oath of allegiance to the Commonwealth if this information is given (ALG), the person's trade if noted by the tax collector (TRADE), and additional comments made by the tax collector or in some cases by the editors (COMMENTS). Editorial comments are found in parentheses with an ED notation.

X = oath (Leacock Twp.)
T = taxable, landed
I = inmate, renter, no land
F = freeman, or single male
N = nonresident
LL = landlord

A note about the classification of persons: not every tax collector indicated whether a person was a land owner or a renter (inmate). Therefore in some cases we have avoided trying to classify persons (such as Lancaster Borough and Strasburg). In some instances, (such as Lampeter and Manor) we tried to infer from the taxes paid whether a person was landed or not, but since this was a matter of surmise, we discontinued the practice. In all cases, the single men were listed separately.

In the case of indications of oath of allegiance, various townships used different methods of showing this information. In order to be as true as possible to the originals, we have used the same character or an abbreviation.

"Two Rivers & a Village, the Story of Safe Harbor" by Ernest T. Schuleen

Safe Harbor residents and visitors for over a century. Tavernkeeper Nestleroad also took out a patent in 1811. for Sandy Island (now Else's Island) in the Susquehanna opposite the mouth of the Conestoga. During the following year he sold it to Martin Stouffer, John Stouffer, John Sourbeer and Christian Kneisly.[7]

The first attempt to formally establish a village at the mouth of Conestoga River was made by Jacob Miller, son of Valentine Miller, who had obtained a William Penn Patent for 140 acres in Manor Township in 1756. According to current research by Diane Miller Fisher, a direct descendant of Jacob, this property was left to Jacob who later increased his holdings to 450 acres through acquisition of adjacent tracts. Prior to his death in 1810 Jacob had laid out 16 lots along the Conestoga near its mouth for a settlement to be called Millerport.[7] Apparently a few sales had been made before his death, some as early as 1806. Court records indicate that Jacob died Intestate and his land sold at public sale, presumably including the lots in Millerport – later contracted to Millport. Subsequent deeds appear for sales of land in "Millerport, commonly known as Safe Harbor." Some of the lot-holders in 1811 were Isreal Nestleroad, Jacob Logan, Christian Kneisly, Christian Otto, John Umbach, Philip Urban, and the Strasburg Company, of which Mike Withers was a large stockholder. By 1815 lot-holders were Philip Brenner, William Bushrun, John Bean, storekeeper Adam Fogle, John Funk, Sophia Wright, Jacob Guck, Henry Hoffman, Henry Klein, Samuel Kimmens, Daniel Kendig, John Kendig and Catherine Logan.[7] The Millers lived on a farm on the slope rising westward from the site of their new town. In later years the farm area was covered by silt deposits from an operation that recovered anthracite coal particles from the Susquehanna. Jacob Miller's gravestone, and those of others buried in the area, were gathered in a central plot farther up on the hill overlooking the Susquehanna. Miller's stone carries an inscription in German to the effect that he was born September 22, 1757 and died December 20, 1810. The small stream which flows through Miller's former farm into the Conestoga bears the name Miller's Run, thus perpetuating the name of Safe Harbor's first real estate promoter.

Historian, Dr. H. M. J. Klein [7], also states that tavernkeeper Nestleroad took out a patent in 1811 for Sandy Island (now Else's Island) in the Susquehanna opposite the mouth of the Conestoga. During the following year he sold it to Martin Stouffer, John Stouffer, John Sourbeer and Christian Kneisly, This island is now partially submerged by the water impounded by the Safe Harbor power dam, the east – west axis of which lies athwart the island.

An earlier and possible source of the name "Safe Harbor" was suggested by the late Dr. Herbert H. Beck, Professor of Chemistry at Franklin & Marshall College and a recognized authority on Lancaster County history. Dr. Beck cites William Penn's selection prior to 1695 of 16,000 acres in present Manor Township for which Penn planned a "chief city" to rival Philadelphia. Dr. Beck also believed that records of the era indicate that Penn hoped to open a shipping channel in the Susquehanna upstream from the Chesapeake Bay and to widen the Conestoga River above its mouth for a "safe harbor". There seemed to have been little interest in London for purchase of lots in the "Manor" and the land was eventually disposed of in farm-sized plots. Penn Manor High School takes its name from this proposed development.

Safe Harbor Gets Its Name

Credit for first placing the name of Safe Harbor in print should go to three gentlemen: Adam Fogle, Jacob Eshleman, Jr., and Henry Brackbill, who inserted the following notice in the Lancaster Intelligencer & Weekly Advertiser of March 15, 1808:

> The subscribers inform the Public in general, and their friends in particular, that they and others have erected a large and commodious Storehouse on the Bank of the Mouth of the Conestoga, called Safe Harbor, for the purpose of storing and taking in flour and wheat. This storehouse is 30 by 90 feet, 3 stories high, and along the edge of the river; where Boats and Arks may come with ease along side, and out of all danger from high wind and hurricanes; where flour and wheat will be hoisted out of boats, on any of the stories, without the labor of carrying and rolling the barrels through dirt and mud.
> The Turkey Hill Falls and Stall's Riffles, the only places heretofore considered dangerous, from Columbia to this place, have been greatly improved the last year, by clearing out obstructions; for that they are considered, by the Watermen, no way dangerous. It makes nine miles difference, in the Toll of Bridges and Turnpikes and in our opinion, will make a difference of 9 d. or a shilling per barrel. Besides, it is a remarkably cool place, where, we believe, flour could be kept much longer from souring than in many other places; and we engage to keep wheat from musting, if delivered dry. From these and other circumstances, we hope to meet a share of the Public Trust, in that line.
> We also intend to purchase a good proportion of wheat that may laid into our trust; and will also be able to assist any Ark or Boat, with men who understand the water well, from Columbia to Safe Harbor. We consider it worthy the attention of some of the Iron-Masters, who send good iron down the River, such as would suit the country Smiths, to be stored here as that article could be sold here very readily.
> Salt and plaster may be had here, at a short notice, ground or in the stone.

This warehouse was on the Conestoga Township side and evidently also was the building in which Ziba Webb kept a hotel. The name Safe Harbor apparently was in common use as early as 1808, and the name Millerport given later to the area by Jacob Miller evidently was not accepted by the natives.

The Iron Works

Perhaps the biggest single event in the history of old Safe Harbor was the coming of the Iron Works in 1846. During the eighteenth century the iron industry had developed rapidly in Lancaster and other southeastern Pennsylvania

IT IS NOT TOO SOON

It is not too soon to be looking toward your chapter rating at Convention — Chapters selling the most Roster I and III will be given recognition. Plan now to send several as Christmas gifts, they are lasting treasurers of our nation's heroic soldiers. Most families find information for which they searched and without which valuable connections can not be made. Roster III is $4.35 mailed and Roster I sells for $2.30 mailed.

MICHAEL WEAVER FAMILY HISTORY
(Maryland-Pennsylvania-Ohio-Illinois)

Compiled by Olive R.Imhof, 1486 Edgehill Ave.,Pittsburgh 16,Pa. with the assistance of Mr. John F.Fisher of Danville, Illinois.

Michael Weaver was born near Hagerstown,Maryland,August 18th,1778, of Scotch parents. He was the youngest child. His mother remarried after his father's death and moved to North Carolina. In 1789 when eleven years old Michael left home and returned to Hagerstown. An older sister married and lived in Kentucky. Michael married Maria Spessert(Spessard),daughter of Michael Spessard and his wife Christiann Spessard(maiden name unknown),of Chewsville,Maryland, where they are buried in the old cemetery across the road from the homestead. The house beside the cemetery occupied by Kieffer Speasard at the time of my visit, a descendant of Maria's brother John Spessard,was once of United Brethren Church.(Scharff's History of Western Maryland has a record of their graves.

The family formerly lived in Keedysville,formerly called Centerville,on the old road leading to Boonesboro. The new road cuts through the center of Michael Spessard's lane which divided his property from that of David Hess.

From old family letters I know that the Michael Weavers lived in what is now Lawrence County,Penna.,a short time,near her sister, Elizabeth Spessard Reynolds. Then they went to Kentucky and from there to Clermont County, Ohio.Their last Ohio residence was in Brown County,Ohio where they lived for ten years, moving from there in 1828 to Vermilion County, Illinois. The old farm back in Brown County was sold for a County home and was little changed seventy-five years later when a descendant visited it.

Maria (Mary) Weaver and Michael Weaver are buried in Weaver Cemetery near Indianola,Illinois,which ground Michael Weaver donated in 1836.

All information on the Weaver Family after leaving Penna.was furnished by John F.Fisher,22 N.Vermilion St.,Danville,Ill. I located him through the postmaster at Indianola as Michael Weaver had written a letter to my grand Uncle Robert Reynolds,Jr.of New Castle,Penna.,Dec.23,1855,which was with his papers at time of death.

For anyone desiring information on the Spessard line, there is a Spessard Genealogy compiled by Howard Lehman Spessard,911 View St., Hagerstown,Md. The Spessard Genealogy states that the old family Bible was taken west by one of the married daughters. Mr Fisher wrote that the page of vital statistics in their family Bible was carried away by a pet crow which destroyed it. It is not in the possession of the Reynolds Family nor of the third sister Christianna Jane Sterrett of Erie,Penna. It is likely that Catherine Weaver,1st wife of Peter Spessard,brother of Maria,was a sister of Michael Weaver which accounts for his return there after his mother remarried and moved to North Carolina.

Michael Weaver b Haggerstown, MD August 18,1778. Died November 17,1875
Maria Spessard Weaver b October 18,1780. Died August 4,1870 (d/o Michael Spessard + Christiann ?)

Dear Linda : Rec'd your letter today. To answer if I quit doing Genealogy, I'm trying to. But almost every day mail comes in and if I recognize the lines and have them here or know where to get them, I've yet to turn people away. Last week some lady from New Richmond, had visited Brown Co. Ohio Historical Soc. and got my name from a card. Said I had Lindsey- well I don't have in my line, but I do have a file from cross search of Lacock-Lindsey. So it goes. I did tell her she might borrow the file if she paid postage. I've had quite a bit of expense lately. New specs, Dr. and drug bills. The Soc. Sec. doesn't pay until you plank the first $60 on Dr. calls etc. And as it gets cooler,I have to get my teeth pulled (lower ones) that will be more money. Pete's medicine cost around $50 a month. So for a spell I'm going slow on genealogy, needed a rest from it anyway. Dot Helton was here last Sunday, I gave her a box of stuff and really should go thru the balance and ditch it. Have to send STEELMAN file back that Pat Donaldson updated and sent down.
This Baum stuff you may have already, if not it may interest you. Some lady working MOYER (Clermont co Ohio and Bracken co Ky.) line was puzzled over the Susannah Moyer's. There were definitely two of them. Clermont co. Ohio History gives Susannah Moyer marrying George Miller Now this Vermilion Co. Ill. History gives the other Susannah marrying Charles Baum. One was d/o Philip Moyer of York Co. Penn and the other d/o John Moyer. Most certainly I think Philip and John were brothers. and were written up in Moyer Genealogy to some extent. I have a dear friend living at Georgetown,Illinois. Where Susannah (Moyer) Baum was in 1860 we didn't find yet. Do you happen to know ?
What is this I hear about Ann and Wendell going to Africa ? Are they turning missionary or what, none of my business,but I'm curious. Write when you can.
Only thing I wanted your cemetery book was to see if I could find when & where Julia Ann (Moyer) Shotwell was buried. She md Wm Shotwell. I'm not needing much in Ohio now on Moyer. Kind of got them sorted out and collected. But in Chester co. Penn. thats a different story. Maybe after Jan. 1st I'll have a few extra shekels to spend.

Sincerely

Nellie

HISTORY OF VERMILION COUNTY, ILL. – THE BIOGRAPHICAL RECORD
1903 - Pearson p 331

Harvey SODOWSKY- The Sodowsky (Sandusky) family was founded in America by James Sodowsky, a Polish exile of noble birth, proud spirit and lofty patriotism... when his love for liberty could no longer tolerate the despotic rule of Russia, he became the leader in a rebellion against the czar, and when defeated, but not subdued, he came to America.. later he married the sister of Governor Inslip, of the colony of Virginia, and among their descendants were Harvey Sodowsky, of this review. In the course of years representatives of the family changed the spelling of their name, including the brothers of our subjects. Two of the brothers, William and Abraham Sandusky, are now prominent farmers and stockmen of Carroll township, Vermilion County, Illinois. Harvey Sodowsky retained the ancestral spelling of the family name...

The birth of Harvey Sodowsky occurred in Bourbon County, Kentucky, 17 May 1817, and when he was about fourteen years of age he came with his parents to this county. He was early initiated into farm work and he remained at home until twenty-four years of age when he married Miss Susan BAUM, a daughter of Charles and Susan (MOYER) BAUM, who had emigrated from OHIO and taken up their abode on the Little Vermilion River. Mrs. Sodowsky was of (Polish error lineage) and the founder of the Baum family in America was her grandfather Charles Baum. He married Miss Barbara ~~McDonald~~ error, a relative of General McDonald, who was under the command of Francis Marion. He did reserve duty in protecting the frontier and when the war was ended he established his home in Bucks county, Pennsylvania. Following Wayne's treaty with the Indians he sailed down the Ohio river town of Chilo, and established the first settlement in the territory of Ohio. It was Charles Baum, Jr, a son of Charles Baum, the emigrant who became the father of Mrs. Sodowsky. He wedded Susan Moyer, whose father JOHN MOYER was one of the heroes of the war for American Independence and served for several years under the immediate command of General Washington. For some time following the close of hostilities he made his home in Pennsylvania and then joined a band of brave pioneers, who reclaimed Ohio for the purpose of civilization, from the hands of the red man. In the year 1839 Charles Baum removed with his family to another pioneer district- Vermilion County, Ill. and here he reached the age of ninety-six years...

BAUM

1 JOHANN THEOBALD BAUM was the original immigrant of our Baum family. He is also found among the records listed as Dewald, Dewalt, and Theowald reflecting the usual English problem of spelling German names. Theobald was born 15 March 1693. He migrated from Strasszburg in Alsace, then a part of France, to America in the early 1720's with his wife Anna Margred and two small sons, John Peter and Jacob. He settled at Oley, then in Philadelphia township. Later in 1744 the township name was changed to Alsace reflecting the origin of many of its early inhabitants. As early as 27 February 1733, Theobald received a warrent for 250 acres of land in Philadelphia county. The survey of 1734 indicates that he and Jacob Spengler were the earliest settlers in this section of Berk County. On 10 April 1741 in the Supreme Court in Philadelphia, Theobald became a naturalized British citizen.

b. Alsace, Germ.

The first church of the neighborhood was errected on land donated by Theobald Baum and Jacob Spengler and was built of logs with their help. It was in existence as early as 1740. In 1753 a stone structure was built. Actually two congregations, the Luthern and the Reform Church shared the building and the school on the lower floor. The present "Twin Churches" on Alsace Hill, Redding, PA stand on the spot of these early buildings and it is in this church yard that the granite grave stone of Theobald written in German still stands. It is the oldest dated stone. He died 17 August 1762. Alsace Town, PA Anna Margr~~ed~~aret b.ca1695PA died between 1762 and 1766.

177 DANIEL BAUM was born 7 October 1780 in Mifflin county, PA. His father died when he was 4 years old and his mother remarried a man named Melchoir Imtorf. There are several legal recordings concerning his guardianship. At 14 Daniel requested the court to appoint his brother John as guardian. Also his brother's estate designated £15 to be paid Daniel's mother for his maintenance. We can assume his relations with his step-father must have been agreeable for when the step-father died in 1804 he willed his property to Daniel's mother and Daniel. Daniel also gave his first son the name of this step-father.

Daniel married in Mifflin county 20 February 1801 ASENEATH ROTROCK born 21 September 1781. They remained there till 8 October 1805. He rented his property and left it in the care of Aseneath's brother John. They moved to Ross county, Ohio where he built a home and raised a family. When Ross county was divided, he was in Pickaway county.

In 1824 when Daniel was 45 years old he made a trip into the newly opened Indiana country and bought land in December at a sale in Crawfordsville. The next spring on 7 March 1825 he began to move his whole family with four other families. They travelled down the Sciota River by flat boat and on down the Ohio River. When he was ready to start north up the Wabash River, he sold the flat boat and bought a keel boat which they cordelled and polled to the mouth of Deer Creek. A half mile up Deer Creek they tied up on the 30 April 1825 and there the boat remained till it sank in the river.

Daniel tells, years latter at an old settlers meeting on 4 August 1855, "It was too late in the season to lose any time, and all erected tents on the bank of Deer Creek, near the old Baum buildings in the bottom, just below the railroad bridge. Immediately broke up some land and put in four acres of corn. Pretty soon I built the hpuse, still standing, in which I resided so many years. .... In the spring of 1827, Dr. Daniel F. Vandeventer, who was a partner with Mr. Graham, brought a little stock of goods. I built a log store-house for him in the yard. Dr. V. was elected clerk and recorder in the spring of 1828, and kept his office in that same store-room; and, until the log school-house was built in Delphi, ... the courts were held in the same building. The old store-room, clerk's office, and court-room is still standing. In January, 1828, there was a great flood; the water came into my kitchen. Once since that time, when my son, Daniel, was living in the same house, the flood was about one foot higher than in 1828." (Stewart. Recollections. p. 40-42)

In the early days Daniel's farm was along the trail of travel east to west and many a visitor made this an overnight stop.

In Carroll county, Daniel took an active part in establishing government and schools. By 1850 he owned a farm worth $4000.00.

When he died 24 December 1857 at his home near Delphi IN, he left the following will dated 10 June 1841:

> "Being in the sixty first year of my age. All > to beloved wife Aseneath. At her death whatever > may remain - both real and personal to be equally > divided amongst the children."

Daniel is buried in the Baum cemetery on the south Delphi hill.

Aseneath lived 13 years after Daniel till 31 May 1870. She too died in Delphi IN. In her obit it says "Thus one by one the old time marks of our pioneer civilization are silently being removed. Mrs. Baum during her long residence in this vicinity had become known to large numbers of people, and among whom she was greatly respected." (Delphi Journal, 8 June 1870)

Aseneath's name appears spelled many ways. We have used the form used by Daniel her husband for lack of proof.

1793 DAVID BAUM was born 26 November 1804 in Mifflin county, PA before his father Daniel left for Ohio. He spent most of his childhood on the Sciota River in Ohio. He also went with his father to Indiana in 1825. There he settled and became a prosperous farmer. His farm in 1850 was worth $5000.00. He held several county offices as justice of the peace. One story about David's character is that at harvest time he had blood poisoning in his toe. With an axe he removed the toe so he could continue working the harvest.

"David Baum settled on a farm upon which he lived for fifty-five years. He was a thrifty farmer, making money enough to buy eighty acres of land every four or five years. He was in good financial circumstances. He united with the Baptist denomination in 1839, and was an earnest member until his death. He encountered the hardships of the early days like others, going to Crawfordsville to the mill and to Chicago with wheat, selling it for thirty-seven and one-half cents cents per bushel. It was only worth twelve and one-half cents here. It required three weeks to make the trip. Mr. Baum gave liberally to secure the railroads. He was an active citizen, somewhat eccentric, but his word was accepted for any liability." (Odell)

On 10 September 1829 in the budding city of Delphi, he was married to ELIZA GREEN. She was born on 28 November 1809 in Jackson county, OH, lived a while in Miami county, OH, and moved to Delphi in 1828. The David Baum farm was on one side of the road and across the street was Eliza's mother, Abigail and step-father John Knight on another farm. Eliza was a founder of the Delphi Baptist Church in 1829 and remained a member till her death. Eliza died in Delphi 23 November 1881 and David followed on 6 March 1884. Both were considered outstanding pioneers of Carroll county.

THE MILLER FAMILY HISTORY AS COMPILED BY CARY S. MILLER

The five sons of Jacob Miller, left their home in the state of Palantinate, in the Rhine area of Germany to come to America. They were known as "short-legged Dutchmen".

Martin arrived in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania in 1752. John, Abram and Jacob in 1753, and David came in 1754, according to ships records. They settled near Reading, Pa. Some of the brothers married there, and all served in the Revolutionary War.

The brothers came down the Ohio River, about 1796. John, David, Jacob and Abram settled on Bullskin Creek at Rural. Martin settled in what is now Washington Township

Rural was a stopping place, as there was a "station" located there. The station was like a hotel, with many rooms, so people could board while looking for land to purchase. They had to be large, as the buyers were accompanied by their families. There was no liquor sold here. That was the purpose of the taverns.

John Miller purchased this station from Robert Bagby, a native of Virginia. Mr. Bagby went further down the river to buy and layout the town of Mechanicsburg, now known as Chilo. After a few years, John sold the station at Rural, and went to Mechanicsburg, where he also operated a Station, and bought land on the river bottom and Bear Creek.

Martin bought a station in what is now Washington Twp, back of Calvary Church, on the Little Indian Creek. This station had been built and operated by the Manning and Wood families. This was a typical stockade, protection from the Indians and wild animals. Later, Martin settled in Kentucky, and may have returned to Ohio.

David and Jacob bought 1000 acres each, and Abram fewer. The price was 50 cents per acre. David's land was purchased from a General Taylor, and located in Franklin Township in Clermont County. The other two brothers was originally in Franklin Township but is now in Brown County.
David and Jacob are most prominent in the affairs of the communities. All Millers of early Franklin Township are descended from these five brothers.

John had land on the road to Chilo, top of the hill from Stringtown, on the left side of road. .

ar Linda,

It was a pleasure to meet you this summer when my husband and I visited Georgetown and met you & Pat Donaldson.

I've been busy doing research on the 5 Miller brothers from Berks Co. Pa who settled on Bullskin Creek in Clermont Co. Ohio. I've made contact with a gentleman in Illinois who is also searching this family, and he has found them in Lancaster County, Pa. as well as Centre County.

You gave me copies of info you have on David Miller and Martin Miller. Could you send copies of what you have on John, Abraham and Jacob?

I believe I've found their parents: Heinrich Mueller and Anna Marie Meili from Church Records of Swatara ormed Church, Jonestown, Lebanon Co. They list 3 sons: hn Jacob b 6/22, 1751, Henry b 1/28/1753 and John 1/3/1755

John Martin Millers pension application says he was born Dec 1759 Lancaster Co. Pa. In the Pa. Archives Pub. I found Martin Miller (Mueller) born 1 Dec, 1759 Lancaster Co. baptised June 1760 Cocalico Twp., Lancaster Co. Pa. son of Heinrich and Anna Marie. He states he went to Centre Co, Pa after the war, then Clermont Co. Ohio then to Greene Co., Ill (1836) and Pike Co. Ill (1837) He is buried in Miller Cemetary, Pearl Twp, Pike Co, Ill. according to DAR and Ill. Vet. Commission - By the 1820 + 30 census of Clermont Co, Ohio he had 13 children. They had these children that I have found -

1. Martin, Jr. married Catherine Mitchell April 22, 1813
2. John b 1797 Pa. married 27 June, 1820 Clermont Co. died after 1860 Pike Co, Ill. maried Nancy Camerer (sisters)
3. William b Nov 13, 1802 Pa. married Lucinda Camerer Jan 27, 1831 Clermont Co. died April 31-1885 b. Miller Cemetary
4. David E. b June 28, 1809 Clermont Co., married Rebecca Todd, Feb 15, 1831 Clermont Co. died Feb 9, 1891 buried Miller Cemetary

5. Henry b about 1813 (Ohio) married Sarah Catherine Smith on Feb 3, 1839 Pike Co. Ill. died June 23, 1889 buried Miller Cemetary " " Ill.

6. Margaret married March 18, 1831 Clermont Co Ohio Married William C. Flowers

7. Anne b 1800 Pa. married Eli Vickroy Aug 22, 1820 Clermont Co. buried near John + Henry in Miller Cemetary 1850, Pike Co. Ill.

William, David + Margaret were married by the same minister - Rev. Powll, Church of Christ -

The Miller Cemetary is in the corner of where the land meets of the property owned by William, John, and David.

There is a Daniel Miller listed in wills of Centre Co. Haines Twp. 12/13/1801-1/1802 by Catherine eld. dtr Catherine, sons Henry, David. I don't know if this is of the same family.

In the History of Centre + Clinton Co, Pa. by Lewis Penn Twp. p. 377 "After the Revolution came in the Millers — Martin, Henry, Jacob, John, locating at the mouth of Elk Creek".

I hope this information is helpful to you. I'm still searching all I can to try to find out where my Henry Lewis Miller fits into this family.

While in Iowa I found that a relative Jacob Miller purchased a farm in 1882 in Woodbu Co. Iowa. I'm trying to find out what I can about this Jacob Miller — how he was related to my Henry — (I gave you a copy of my family group)

Dear Linda,

Thank you for your letter of Nov 19-

Ive been busy researching and came up with a few more items of interest-

I don't know if this is our John Mueller (son of Henry) who married Becky Borckert on Feb 17, 1777 but it seems as if it could be since he was born Jan 3, 1755 and it would make him 22 years old- This was in Penna German Marriages.

In a list of Passengers - Immigration list by Filby - Meyers a Heiri Meili came to Carolina in 1743 with wife & children.

And also listed is a Heinrich Meilj who came in 1743 to Penna.

Not saying either one is related to our Anna Marie but note the difference in spelling-

I have several things different from yours- Jacob Miller married Catharine Munch (or Minnick) January 13, 1793 Tulpehocken Twp, Berks Co. Pa. and they had a daughter (in addition to those you have) Mary Catherine born June 28, 1795. I also have a Jacob Jr. but I don't know where I got that info (?) - Mary Catherines baptism is listed in The Ev. Lutheran Church Tulpehocken Twp Berks Co. on July 28, 1795.

I believe John L. married Becky Borckert & Susan Lawson was his 2nd wife -

Since Daniel died in 1801 he couldn't be my line since my g. grandfather was born in 1819. I can see where my Henry Lewis could be the child of Martin Miller & Catherine Mitchell (they were married in 1813 - ~~or the~~ Sorry ~~son of Jacob and Amanda Elizabeth Hobbins or the son of Henry or David (Daniel)~~ or Philip Jacob Miller + Frances Yates married in 1817 or Henry C. and Phoebe Bagby or (Bagly) married in 1816 or Andrew + Eliz. Snider married in 1813 — or Lewis + Mary Cooper married in 1814. Or decendents of Henry who was born in 1753 -

There's lots of possibilities -

Its quite a puzzle. Where did you find Susannah Humbongs parents?

I sent for military records - they returned the forms and stated that I should check with Penna. about the militia so I did but haven't received any answer yet -

I wondered, too, if Abraham is actually Joseph Abraham -

The only info I have on Martin Millers death is 1840-50 Pike Co. Ill - I imagine the tombstone is difficult to read - This I got from George Wyler.

The only pay we get for all this is the sharing of data and I'm so glad everyone is so willing to share.

I found another lady in Wisc. who is related through David Miller -

I've sent my enrollment in for Brown Co. Geneological Society a few days ago.

Am sending some info to Pat along with a "write up" about my Hiles + Miller - and have to copy it to send so this will go out first -

Dear Linda,

Enclosed are a letter & copies of EVANS info from Evelyn Deike to add to your collection. Maybe you know already about this family which includes Rev. John Evans FINLEY.

In addition, a new quarterly, Lancaster County Connections, by Gary T. Hawbaker & Clyde L. Groff has just been published. The premier issue dwells on the early settlement of Chester & Lancaster Counties, PA and the conditions in Europe that drove the Palatines, Mennonites etc. to come to PA. The first settlement in Lancaster Co. was made in 1710 (it was still Chester Co. until 1729) by a group of Palatines from Switzerland which included JACOB MULLER/MILLER. His son SAMUEL was the first child born in the PEQUEA Swiss Colony on 22 Jan 1711. JACOB, the father was born in Europe in 1663, came to Am. in 1710, to Phily from Switzerland and directly to the Pequea of Chester/Lancaster Co. He died 20 Apr 1739, in Tschantz' burying ground, now on the farm owned by Dr. Martin MUSSER. When he arrived, JACOB bought 1,008 acres. MARTIN & VALENTINE MILLER bought property from Amos STRETTLE at Pequea, now Strasburg Twp., between 1712 & 1734. ERNST MULLER was a great Swiss historian 1635 in Zurich - HANS MULLER was imprisoned a long while for his religious beliefs.

1640 Keburg, in Canton of Zurich - ULRICH MULLER was taken to Zurich prison.

1622 - MICHAEL & HANS MULLER among Swiss Mennonites.

1731 - a HANS & a HEINRICH MULLER were members of the congregation of Streigenberg, in the Palatinate, above Manheim.

1710 - JACOB MULLER, pioneer, came directly from Switzerland to Pequea & settled. He seems to have been 57 yrs. in 1710, born in 1663 & died 20 Apr 1739. (Rupp Hist. 783)

MULLER & MEILI/MEILY/MEILIN families buried in Tchantz burying Ground. Stones erected in 1742 & 43.

JACOB MULLER, native of Deutchland, 76 yrs & 1 mo ~~on stone~~

MAGDALENA, wf/o JACOB, married 46 yrs, 18 da. d. 4 Nov 1739, age 78 yrs, 9 mo, 14 d.

SAMUEL, s/o JACOB on stone with MAGDALENA

BARBARA MEILIN/MEILY/MEILI, w/o old MARTIN MAILIN, married 24 yrs, d. 2 Apr 1742, 70 yrs.

son MARTIN MEILIN, age 4 yrs, 4 wks, d. 1732

HANS MEILIN, 19 yrs, 26 Dec 1733

old MARTIN MEILIN, grave unmarked, probably north of BARBARA. In fact, the MEILINS were buried north of the MULLERS/MILLERS. All the different spellings were used in the quarterly.

From the Canton of Zurich came the pioneers KENDIG, OBERHOLTZER, MEILI & MULLER

If you want copies of the pertinent pages, please let me know. If you want to write a Query for more info on this MULLER & MEILIN connection, please write it (40 words) & I'll send it in. Maybe this will connect with DAVID & CATHERINE.

Linda Wilson

Georgetown, OH 45121

Dear Linda:

I have corresponded with Janice and she sent me copies of family sheets that she has on David Miller and Susannah Humlong. Her information about Rupert and/or Jacob being the father of George Humlong and Susannah Humlong comes from Martha Zimmerman of Illinois. She is a descendent of George's daughter Margaret. She copied the information from an old women several yrs. ago in Germantown, Ky. You are the first person who has ever mentioned a brother of George's and Susannah's. We have in among the old family papers always seen Jacob listed as their father. There is a reference to George having 3 sisters but no information about them.

I have decided to tell you the stories that have been passed down through my husband George's family mostly from his grandmother who was a Harmon.

Wilhelmina Hager Humlong came to America from Germany with George (her son) when George was two. She was a widow. They came here because of religious persecution. They were of the Dunkard sect. (Church of the Brethern now). She never made any mention of sisters or brothers.

Bill Humlong of Dayton, Oh who we went to see last summer has in his baby book that George's fathers name was either Jacob or Rupert. Bill also has the old family grandfather clock that was saved from the fire in the log cabin in Bracken Co. He has had it restored but there is no manufacturerers name on it.

Among the family papers of Robert Graham's we have found where he started doing the family tree in the 1920's and 30's. He did not get to finish due to his death in 1939. He has on all of his charts the father of George as Jacob. I have enclosed a copy of a letter he wrote to Mary McCollum in Yonkers New York.

I believe as you read you will see where maybe some of these stories came from about Wilhelmina's name being Robinson. I don't know yet if there is any truth to this. Also there is a mention of Jacob being George's father.

I have enclosed a copy of the PA archives that tells of George being in the militia in 1794. His first child was also born in 1794. This information about Mary Fronk by Robert Graham Humlong from a Ben & Virginia Spencer 171 N. Washington St. Delaware, OH. (no date, I am assuming some time in the 30's.)

I hope that I am not confusing you too much. After you look at the family sheets enclosed it may make more sense.

I have enclosed copies of papers concerning John Miller and David Miller. The paper where George turns his land over to David Miller does not say anything about money being exchanged. Up until 10/7/1812 George pays the taxes on the land. I have enclosed copies of where David Miller pays the taxes. After this date George starts paying the taxes again. I do not have or have not looked in the court records for where the land was turned back over to George.

The other tax receipts are for different pieces of land than the one that George turned over to David.

One of the indentures enclosed is from David Day to John and Mary Miller. This tract of land was later sold to George Humlong.

Maybe you will be able to make some sense out of all this if you already know what land David owned.

My husband George and I hope to start on PA records in September. Maybe this will be where some of the answers are about George and his parents.

I will let you know when something is turned up.

We hope to have this straigtened out more at least by next summer. I hope to start writing the family history then.

Sincerely,

Leslie N. Humlong

My Dear Cousin:-

I have your good letter before me and have just re-read it and take great pleasure in what you tell me about my ancestors. I thank you for the letter. I have read and copied the other papers that you sent with your letter and am returning them herewith. Thank you for them also.

I took a look in the box of old papers that I have and found Gr. Gf. Humlong's will and have made a copy of it and am enclosing it herewith. It recites facts about a tract of land in Brown County, Ohio. I also found some old papers, deeds and descriptions showing that Gr. Gf. owned a farm on Bull skin Creek, Clermont County, Ohio, in partnership with John Miller. It is described as 1161 A. 121 poles. and over 100 acres in dispute as to title, including in all 1272 acres. Also an agreement between John Miller and George Humlong wherein John Miller is to pay George Humlong 37½¢ per acre for amounts he paid is settling or procuring the "Patent" to the said land. Also a deed from John Miller to George Humlong for 167 acres in Clermont Co. O. dated Aug 10, 1831. John Miller's signatire to this deed is very German and I find in another paper that he signed by mark and his mark was attested by John Miller, Jr. I also fond the name James Miller as being indebted to George Humlong Sr. in the amount of $82.87 in the appraisement of his estate, dated Aug. 14, 1852 and signed by Henry Fronk and George Humlong, executors.

I surmise that this John Miller, Sr. was the father of the three men by name of Miller who married Humlong girls that my father tells about in his papers. and perhaps John Miller Jr. and James Miller are two of them. I had a talk with our county assessor by name of Miller about this matter and he was attempting to trace the matter but met with an accident and died before he gave me any information.

When I wrote you before I gave you the information from the Mr. Davis from memory but now I am quoting it from my notes as copied then:
Anthony Davis, a gentleman about 76 years old, who lives near Georgetown, Ohio, says his grandfather came over the mountains from Penn. with Jacob Humlong, and their wives were sisters and their names were Robinson before they married. Davis settled in Ohio and Humlong in Ky. and Jacob's son, George Humlong, used to come over to Ohio to see his aunt, Davis' wife. This writing was not dated but I think it was in 1907 or 1908, and while we were living at Russelville, Ohio.

You speak of the records at Batavie, Ohio. I mean to take it upon myself to go over there some time and make the search of the records both at Batavia and Georgetown and see if I can unravel any of this matter.

In the copy of the "will" enclosed, the name Elizabeth, wofe of George Humlong, was Elizabeth Harmon, or so said Aunt Moggie Harmon, and she said that Elizabeth was married in a calico dress that cost $50.00 and that the "Infair" was held at the two story log house that burned three years ago on the Humlong farm, and where my father was born, and that while the guests were still at the house after the dinner was served, the mother-in-law, which was Wilhelmien, said "Lizzie take off you calico dress and put on your linsey woolsey and help me wash the dishes" and she did.

The imigrant in the Harmon family was named Michael and he settled here in this neighborhood, owning all of the land southwest of Germantown and where Uncle Michel Harmon owned land. Cousin Laura Currey tells me that in Holland he was valet to the king and his wife was seamstress to the queen and that t they brought packing cases of the cast off finery of the king and queen with them to A merica and to Ky. I find the name of George Harmon among Gr. Gf. George Humlong's papers and also among the church records of Ohio Locust Maating House which was a Baptist church. He seems not to have been married. I also knwo of a coverlid which was woven my Abijah Harmon and is now an heirloom in the family of Mr. W. B. Cooper here at Germantown. I suspect that George and Abijah and Valentine, who is the father of my grandmother Eliza Harmon Crahfield, and Elizabeth Harmon Humlong are all children of the original Michale but I know of no record that so states. I will ask Cousin Laura about it.

In your letter you speak of Guffin. In the old papers I find one boundry that names Andy Guffin to the Humlong land around the dower and is now in the possession of Donald Griffith and is known as the Andy Guffin Land. I hunted squirrels in the woods that was called Guffin Woods when I was a boy.

You ask if the two story house was on my father's farm where Cousin Samuel Thompson and Cousin Decatur Smith got their wives. That must have been the home of Simeon Walton and just north of our old home. Neal owns the land now but the house burned several years ago. The tomb stones ar in the garden there now and Neal tries to keep them up. They bear the names of Simeon Walton and Agnes Hester Walton. She was from Wales. We have a pretty clear record of the Walton family from Simeon down.

I would be very greatly obliged to you if you would send me the lineage if you ever get it from Cousin Mary Humlong Baker. If you do I will copy it and retirn it to you.

A good way for us to get this matter straightened out is for you to come back to Kentucly and make us a visit and we will go over the matter until we get straightened out. If you are able we will take the trip to Batavia and George town and search the records there. We would be delighted to have you visit us.

I have a very limited lnowledge of your family, that is the family of John Humlong. I wish of you can some time you would set them down in the tree form from John down as far as they go, but I do not want to put too big a burden on you of you dont feel like the effort.

My wife has taken Cousin Laura Currey down to Cousin Eva Began's this afternoon. Tomorrow is her birth day and she asked them to come today to help her celebrate.

Well I know you are tired of reading this long letter so I will stop. I thank you again for the paper and for your good letter and if you ever care to try it again I will be glad to hear from you.

Sincerely,

R. G. Humlong

pression in this article: "To owe no man anything, to deal justly in all things with all men, was the honorable ambition of his life. He was a social man of the old-time courtesy and a fine entertainer, his home being a social center for many years. He was unostentatious in his dealings with the poor, so that few gave him credit for the liberality which was his due. He was a large loaner of money to people in Gallatin and adjoining counties and was never known to oppress. Many owe their homes to his patience and forbearance. He was a gentleman who loved the beautiful in art and nature and who,

'Whene'er a noble deed was wrought, Whene'er was uttered a noble thought,' stood with uncovered head in reverential appreciation."

In 1817 Mr. Hamilton was united in marriage to Miss Hannah Gregg, as previously noted. She was summoned to eternal rest in 1837, and in 1840 Mr. Hamilton wedded Miss Grace A. Andrews, a native of Connecticut. This union was prolific of two children, C., born on the 17th of October, 1842, is now a resident of Gallatin county, Kentucky, where he is engaged in the great basic industry of agriculture; and Alice G., born in 1844, is deceased, her death having occurred in 1866, at the age of twenty-two years. Mrs. Grace A. Hamilton survived her honored husband for about nine months, she having passed away in August, 1884.

George GEORGE R. HUMLONG, a stockman and farmer, though a native of the fine old Blue Grass state, has maintained his home in Texas for the past ten years. He is an extensive landholder and stock dealer in the Lone Star state, the scene of his labors being about two hundred and eleven miles west of Fort Worth, Texas. He was born in Bracken county, Kentucky, on the 20th of December, 1861, and is a son of George and Amanda (Hamilton) Humlong, the former of whom was likewise a native of Bracken county, where he was ushered into the world on the 5th of July, 1805, and the latter of whom was born in Kentucky on the 10th of May, 1820. Concerning the career of George Humlong, Sr., fuller data are to be found elsewhere in this work, in the sketch dedicated to John R. Humlong, half-brother of him whose name initiates this review. George Humlong, Sr., first married Miss Eliza Walton, of English descent, and they became the parents of seven children, all of whom are now deceased except John R., 3R mentioned above. Eliza (Walton) Humlong passed to her reward in 1856 and after her demise Mr. Humlong wedded Amanda G. Hamilton. To this union were born three children, namely: George R., of this review; Sallie B. Adams and Mrs. W. Minnie Sallee, of Medford, Oregon. Mrs. Amanda G. Humlong was a daughter of John O. and Hannah (Gregg) Hamilton, whose marriage was solemnized in 1817. Concerning Mr. Hamilton a special sketch of his life appears on other pages of this volume, so that further details regarding his career are not deemed necessary at this point. Of their nine children, Amanda G. was the second in order of birth and concerning her brothers and sisters the following brief data are here incorporated: Dr. Oscar F. was born on the 17th of September, 1818, and he was engaged in the practice of his profession in different counties in Kentucky until his death, in 1851, in Gallatin county (Amanda G. was the next in order of birth); Melvina A. was born on the 18th of November, 1823, and was summoned to the life eternal on the 5th of April, 1843; Sarah A., born May 4, 1826, died May 4, 1830; Eliza J., born September 2, 1828, died November 9, 1903, at the venerable age of seventy-five years; Sarah A., born May 16, 1830, died October 12, 1902, at the age of seventy-two years; Alexander, who was born on the 1st of September, 1832, is a prominent farmer and stockman at Yates Center, Kansas, and he is now seventy-eight years of age; Felix G. was born on the 17th of April, 1833, and died on the 21st of May of that year; and Mary Hannah, born on the 20th of December, 1836, is the widow of J. P. Garvey, at one time a member of the firm of Garvey & Feltman, tobacco dealers in Cincinnati, and she now maintains her home in the city of Los Angeles, California. John O. Hamilton began life with practically no capital, but so successful was he in his various ventures that at the time of his death, in 1883, he was the owner of eleven hundred acres of most arable land in Kentucky, and of over twenty-six hundred acres in the west. Miss Amanda G. Hamilton was reared and educated in her native county and in 1838, on her eighteenth birthday, May 16, she was united in marriage to George Roberts, who died on the 1st of May, 1853, being survived by two children, Ida M. Roberts and Hon. Augustus B. Roberts, the latter now deceased. Hon. Augustus B. Roberts was judge of the Owen county, Kentucky, court for a term of four years, and he also gave most efficient service as clerk of that county for four years. He was a Confederate soldier in the war between the states and was with General Albert Sidney Johnston at the battle of Shiloh, where he lost an arm. In 1885 he removed to Colorado on account of the impaired condition of his health and he was lost in a snow storm in 1886. In 1859 Amanda G. (Hamilton) Roberts became the wife of George Humlong, as previously noted. Mr. Humlong died in June, 1869, and his widow died May 1, 1911, at Germantown, Kentucky, being at that time within a few days of ninety-one years of age. She was a woman of most gracious personality and broad sympathy and was deeply revered by all who came within the sphere of her gentle influence.

George R. Humlong was reared to maturity on the old Humlong homestead in Bracken county and he received an excellent common-school education in his youth. At the age of eighteen he assumed the management of the old home farm and he continued to be so engaged until 1900, in which year he removed to Texas, where he devotes his attention to farming and stock-raising, in which line of enterprise he is most successful. In politics Mr. Humlong accords a stanch allegiance to the cause of the Democratic party and he has been an influential factor in public affairs in Kentucky and in Texas. He is a frequent visitor in his native county in the old Blue Grass state and is deeply interested in all that pertains to its progress and development. His wife is a devout member of the Methodist Episcopal church, in the different departments of whose work she has been active.

In Bracken county, Kentucky, on the 25th of October, 1893, was celebrated the marriage of Mr. Humlong to Miss May G. Asbury, a daughter of T. T. Asbury, a prominent farmer in Mason county. Mr. and Mrs. Humlong have had four children, namely: Will Hervey, born in 1896; George, Jr., born in 1898; Taylor Roberts, who died in Florida, January 24, 1910, at the age of five years; and Sallie D., born in 1905.

Alexander Black.—Though he is nearing the age of four score years this sterling citizen of Richmond, Madison county, retains his mental and physical faculties in all of virile strength, and through his continued interest in the affairs of the day he has a spirit of perennial youth and enthusiasm. He is living retired from the active and fruitful endeavors that marked his course for many years, and is enjoying that dignified ease and comfort that should ever accompany worthy old age. Mr. Black is a representative of one of the honored pioneer families of Kentucky, with whose history the name has been identified for fully a century, and those who have borne the name have proved productive workers in connection with the economic industries and civic advancement.

Alexander Black was born in Knox county, Kentucky, on the 27th of January, 1833, and is a son of John C. and Cassie (Jones) Black, the former of whom was a native of South Carolina and the latter of Kentucky. John C. Black was born in the year 1[illegible]3 and about seven years later his parents, Alexander and Isabel (Martin) Black, removed from South Carolina to Kentucky and established their home in Knox county, where they passed the remainder of their lives and where their remains were laid to rest in the old family cemetery, in which Alexander Black was the first to be interred. Many other members of the family have since been given their final place of rest in this ancient burial ground, including John C. and his wife. Alexander Black, the founder of the family in Kentucky, reclaimed a farm from the wilderness and was a man of prominence and influence in the pioneer community. His son John C. likewise devoted his entire active career to agricultural pursuits in Knox county, where he became the owner of a large and valuable landed estate and where his fine qualities of mind and heart ever retained to him the unqualified esteem of all who knew him. He was well equipped for leadership in thought and action and was called upon to serve in various offices of public trust, including that of magistrate, of which he was incumbent under both the first and second constitutions adopted by the state of Kentucky. Of the large family of children eleven attained to years of maturity and six are living at the present time. Samuel, Alexander and David W. are residents of Madison county; James D. is a distinguished member of the bar of Knox county, engaged in the practice of his profession at Barboursville, and he not only served as a member of the Kentucky legislature in 1876 but was a candidate for the office of chief executive of the state, in which connection he was defeated by Governor Beckham; John A. is likewise one of the representative citizens of Knox county, where he has been a prominent agriculturist and merchant and where he is now an influential factor in the banking business, at Barboursville; and Alaban, the wife of William Hopper, resides in Laurel county.

Alexander Black, whose name initiates this review, was reared to manhood on the old homestead plantation in Knox county and his early educational advantages were those afforded in the common schools of the day. He continued to maintain his home in his native county, and in 1862 he engaged in the general merchandise business at Barboursville, the county seat, where he continued operations in this line for a period of three years, during which his younger brother, John A., was a who was born and reared at Batavia, Ohio, and who is a daughter of Dr. William Wayland, long a practicing physician at that place. She is a representative of an old Virginia family, members of which were early pioneers in Ohio. She received her ducation at Ursuline Convent, in Brown county, Ohio, near Fayetteville.

JOHN ROBERT HUMLONG.—One of the essentially representative and public spirited citizens of the Germantown precinct, Bracken county, Kentucky, John R. Humlong has gained recognition as a successful stockman and tobacco planter. It is to men of his sturdy loyalty and progressive civic attitude that Kentucky owes her national reputation for industrial thrift and social and political prestige. Furthermore, it is through men of his stamp that Kentucky continues to maintain her country-wide reputation for generous hospitality and warm welcome.

Mr. Humlong was born in Bracken county, Kentucky on the 11th of June, 1846, and is a son of George and Eliza (Walton) Humlong, the fromer of whom was German and the latter of English descent. George Humlong was likewise born in Bracken county, the day of his birth being July 5, 1805, and he was summoned to the life eternal on the 11th of June, 1869. He was a farmer and stock raiser by vocation and was eminently successful and highly respected. At the time of his death he owned seven hundred acres of finely improved land and aside from his other interests he was a great horticulturist, raising a large amount of fruit. In politics he was a staunch Democrat and his religious faith was in accordance with the tenets of the Christian church. His father was George Humlong, a native of Hanover, Germany, where he was born in 1764 and whence he emigrated to America, in company with his mother, Wilhelmina Humlong, when a mere youth. They first settled in Pennsylvania and removed to Bracken county, Kentucky, about 1785, locating at what was known as Buchanon Station. He had a little money and secured land in the Blue Grass state and in Ohio, owning at the time of his death some seven hundred acres, which was divided among his seven children, five daughters and two sons. He was a Dunkard and a Democrat and continued to reside in Bracken county until his death, in 1852. His mother also died in Kentucky. Eliza Walton, mother of the subject of this review, was born in Bracken county, Kentucky, in 1816, a daughter of Robert Walton. Simeon Walton, the father of Robert Walton, was a Baptist minister who came from Virginia.

The family traces its origin back to English extraction, the first representative in America having been born in Lancastershire, England. Rev. Walton died about 1798, in Kentucky, where he followed his ministerial calling in conjunction with farming. Robert Walton was one of twelve children, all of whom were engaged principally in agricultural pursuits during the greater part of their active careers. Eliza (Walton) Humlong was a member of the Christian church and she was summoned to the life eternal in 1856, at forty years of age. George and Eliza Humlong became the parents of seven children, all of whom are now deceased except John R., the immediate subject of this sketch. After the death of his first wife George Humlong wedded Amanda Roberts, who died May 1, 1911, when over ninety-one years of age. They became the parents of three children, all of whom are living.

John R. Humlong was reared to maturity on the old farm homestead and he received his educational training in the common schools of Bracken county. He also went to school at at Augusta and Lexington. He has resided throughout his life within sight of his birthplace. In 1893 he purchased one hundred and sixty acres of land in Cheyenne county, Kansas, and he now owns and operates with the assistance of his son a finely improved farm of two hundred and thirty-five acres in Germantown precinct, Bracken county. He has been eminently successful as a farmer and stock grower and he is held in high confidence and esteem in his home community. In politics his has ever been aligned as a staunch adherent of the principles and policies of the Democratic party and in a fraternal way he is affiliated with the time-honored Masonic order and the Knights of Pythias. He and his sons are devout members of the Christian church and Mrs. Humlong holds membership in the Methodist Episcopal church, south.

In 1871 was solemnized the marriage of Mr. Humlong to Miss Anna Belle Crihfield, who was born at Germantown, this county, on the 7th of August 1847, being a daughter of Robert and Ann Eliza (Harmon) Crihfield. The father was born in Mason county, Kentucky, in 1818 and his death occurred in 1855, at the age of thirty-seven years. He was a farmer and at the time of his death was survived by his wife and three small children—Mrs. Humlong, Samuel, Arthur and William Robert, all of whom are living. Robert was a son of Samuel Crihfield, who was a valiant soldier in the war of 1812. Samuel Crihfield married Elizabeth Holiday, who died at seventy-five years of age, in 1868. He passed away in 1825. Mr. and Mrs. Humlong have two sons—William Neal, who is associated with his father in the work and management of the home farm, and Robert G., cashier of the Bank of Germantown, concerning whom further mention is made on other pages of this work.

Robert Graham Humlong.—The popular and efficient incumbent of the office of cashier of the Bank of Germantown, R. Graham Humlong was born in Bracken county, Kentucky, on the 14th of May, 1876, and is a son of John R. and Anna Belle (Crihfield) Humlong. A sketch of the career of the father appears on preceding pages so that further mention concerning the family history is not deemed necessary at this point. After due preliminary discipline in the common schools of his native county Mr. Humlong entered the University of Kentucky, at Lexington, 1893, where he received college training. In 1905 he became cashier in The Bank of Russelville, at Russelville, Ohio, and continued to hold this office until December, 1909, at which time he accepted his present position as cashier of the Bank of Germantown, in Bracken county, succeeding Mr. J. H. Blackburn.

The Bank of Germantown was organized in 1899 and began buisness January 2, 1900. It was incorporated with a capital stock of sixteen thousand, five hundred dollars, fully paid, and its surplus and undivided profits now amount to five thousand dollars. The deposits of the bank average about sixty thousand dollars. A dividend of six per cent was paid during the first two years and since then a dividend of eight per cent. The official corps of the institution is as follows.—T. M. Dora, president; John Wallingford, vice-president; R. G. Humlong, cashier. The board of directors consists of T. M. Dora, John Wallingford, Daniel Norris, W. R. Crihfield, W. N. Humlong, John Tyler Stiles, Charles T. Calvert, Mrs. Lulie S. McIntire and George Galbraith.

In 1900 was solemnized the marriage of Mr. Humlong to Miss Anna Frazee, a daughter of Samuel Frazee, of Mason county. Mr. and Mrs. Humlong have one daughter, Elizabeth, who was born on the 27th of June, 1902. In politics Mr. Humlong accords a staunch allegiance to the Democratic party, and while residing in Russelville, Ohio, he served as treasurer of Jefferson township. In the Masonic Order he is a member of Blue Lodge, No. 207, Free & Accepted Masons, of Germantown, Kentucky. Both he and his wife hold membership in the Christian church, and they are popular and prominent figures in the best social activities of their home town.

Joseph D. Hancock.—Thomas Jefferson is credited with saying, "Let the farmer forevermore be honored in his calling; for though he labor in the earth he is one of the chosen people of God." Of much later date it has been said, "The farmer is king of the earth," and by his life and achievements Joseph D. Hancock seems to corroborate both of these sayings. This well-known Bracken county farmer and stockman was born on the 28th day of May, 1850, in the section which still claims his residence and his life has for the most part been passed in this pleasant locality. The scene of his birth was the John Hancock farm, the gentleman named being his grandfather. His parents were John and Margaret (Power) Hancock. The former was a native of Clermont county, Ohio, born March 18, 1818, and died in October, 1893. When only a little past his majority he came to Kentucky with his father, the above mentioned John Hancock, and located in Bracken county, on the farm near Chatham. They bought one hundred and eleven acres of land and improved the same, and there John Sr. lived until his death, which occurred about the year 1860, at an advanced age. The elder John Hancock came to Ohio from the eastern shore of Maryland, where he had been born and wherever he conducted his agricultural operations, whether in the Buckeye state or in Kentucky, he was successful. The Hancocks originally came to the United States from Scotland. The paternal grandmother of the subject was a Davis and probably a relative of Jefferson Davis. His mother was a native Kentuckian, born in Bracken county February 29, 1824, and she lived to be more than eighty years of age, her demise occurring in January, 1906. She was a daughter of Richard and Frances (Taylor) Power, the former a soldier in the Revolutionary war. He subsequently became a riverman, operating a flat boat, and he died in the South. This worthy woman was a member of the Christian church and secure in the enjoyment of general respect.

Mr. Hancock was one of a family of eight children, of whom four others than himself survive at the present day. They are as follows: Taylor is a citizen of Brooksville; Jane, who became Mrs. George Kinney, resides also at the county seat of Bracken county; Euprasie, married Asa Fagan and resides in Chatham; George, a retired farmer and the owner of the old Hancock homestead, is now a resident of Augusta. The deceased members of this well-known family are Mary (Ritter), John and Elizabeth.

Mr. Hancock passed his early years here and after marriage removed to his present home which was the Toleman farm, on the Mt. Zion road in Chatham precinct. He received his early education in the public

ANDREW DILLMAN.

I might be able to go back to Germany and tell a few things beginning over there, but suffice it to know, our ancestor's were from Prussia, in Germany.

Great-grand-father, Andrew Dillman, had seven sons, the names of four of them I have not, the other three were, George, Conrad and Andrew, whether the three named were the older or younger is not known, but, Andrew, the Revolutionary soldier, was born in 1751 and was probably one of the youngest. Our great-grand-father, Andrew Dillman, died about the year 1813 at the age of 108 years. Grand-father, Andrew Dillman, was born in Adams county, Pennsylvania, October 21, 1751. Of his earlier years little is known, except that he was brought up on a farm, but later he learned the carpenter's trade and a millwright. There is no record of the time of his marriage (but from the ages of his children) it was about 1777, he was married to Barbary Roush. Andrew Dillman served four years in the Revolutionary war, with three of his brothers, two of whom perished in that war, it is known that he was in the battles of Germantown and Brandywine, after his death his widow drew a pension, which showed he was in the regular army and not in the militia.

Andrew Dillman and Barbara (Roush) Dillman were the parents of thirteen children. One of which died in infancy: Eve Dillman, born in 1778; George Dillman, born in March, 1871; John Dillman, born in March, 1783; Susan Dillman, born in May, 1785; Barbary Dillman, born in February 2, 1787; Frederic Dillman, born November 14, 1788; Andrew Dillman, born November 7, 1790; Julia Dillman, born October 15, 1791; Catherine Dillman, born December 22, 1792; Elizabeth Dillman, born December 18, 1795; Conrad Dillman, born October 29, 1798; Samuel Dillman, born 1800.

In the year 1794 Andrew and his brother George emigrated to the west, they no doubt followed the old Braddock road to Pittsburg and there taking flat boats floated down the Ohio river to Limestone (now Maysville) in Mason county, here it seems the brothers separated, Andrew settling in Mason county, (afterwards Bracken county, Kentucky) about four miles from Augusta and George on the Ohio side about seven miles from the same town. Conrad Dillman emigrated to the Scioto Valley in Ohio at an earlier date. Here in the hills bordering little Bracken Creek, Andrew Dillman and his young family began life anew. It is not necessary for me to picture the trials and hardships they had to endure, it's the same old story. In person, Andrew Dillman was rather tall and well proportioned. Dark brown hair which in after years turned silved white which with his long white beard gave him quite a patriarchial appearance. In character he was calm and sedate but kind and sociable, a very strict temperance man, and a hater of human slavery. In his own family he was kindness to a fault but his word was law, and in his household was order. In religion he was a Dunker and kept up the form and spirit of his belief.

On a beautiful morning, May 21, 1823, he complained of not feeling well, and asked for a change of underwear. Grandmother gave them to him and left the room to attend to her household duties and when she returned, he had dressed and laid down on the bed, folded his hands on his breast, closed his eyes, but his spirit was gone to the God who gave it. His age was 71 years and 7 months. Grandmother, Barbary (Roush) Dillman was born December 17, 1759. In her younger days, she must have been a very handsome woman, for in her old age, she was very beautiful. She was rather below the medium height, but fully built, with small dimpl[illegible]ls: she was the idol of her children and grandchildren. She died N[illegible]er 17, 1842, at the age of 82 years, 11 months.

Mr. Andrew R. Dillman,
McLean, Illinois.

AND ANDREW DILLMAN ANSWERED, "HERE!"

On Bunker Hill's historic height,
Where waged the conflict for the right,
'Twixt Freedom's sons and British hosts,
For Freedom's cause at any cost,
'Mid cannonade, 'mid shot and shell,
Where brave, heroic Warren fell,
Rang out the roll call, loud and clear,
And Andrew Dillman answered, "Here!"

On Behmu's height, where patriots stand,
And hold in check Burgoyne's command,
Where raged the conflict, thick and black,
Where Arnold drove the British back,
The battle closing with the day,
Where soldiers on their arms did lay,
Then rang the roll call, loud and clear,
And Andrew Dillman answered, "Here!"

At early morn, e'en break of day,
The foe had slily crept away,
On! On! pushed Gates in hot pursuit,
When British hosts were put to rout,
'Till pressed and beat on every hand,
Burgoyne surrendered his command,
Then rang the roll call, loud and clear,
And Andrew Dillman answered, "Here!"

At Valley Forge, where all was gloom
At prospect of impending doom,
For half-clad, hungry men at best
Could illy stand the wintry blast,
Where Washington, 'though worn and weak,
To each a cheerful word did speak,
Rang out the roll call, loud and clear,
And Andrew Dillman answered, "Here!"

At Yorktown siege, where Washington
Himself discharged the signal gun,
Where furious cannonade held sway
From early morn 'till close of day,
Where Yankee boys with bayonet,
Assault the British parapet;
Still, onward pressing freedom's sons,
While louder rang DeBarra's guns;
With furious charge the redoubts crossed—the colored line is in error. George Michael did settle in Bracken Co. Ky along with Andrew. By checking the marriage dates of the children it looks like George + Christina must have moved about 1819/20 into Clermont Co. Ohio. I know George's family was in Westmoreland Co. Pa. in Feb. 1792 because my Fred was born there. It's possible Andrews family was there too and they were all on their way to Ky. at the time which means they left Northumberland Co. Pa. before this author states also. I have copy of this page plus others from this book, I have nothing to show me that George Michael was ever in the Rev. War. I believe him to be younger then Andrew. I also believe that there is a possiblity that George Andrew & Conrad were the son's of George Willman and Grandsons of Andrew Willman Sr. I'll explain later.

see later —

You will note that Fisher's (Snyder Co. Pioneers) work on Andrew Jr. comes right out of this Houser book. The fact that George Michael is called George only here is why he didn't know the Michael he listes were the same person. He has our Michael down as Willman & Wiehlman not knowing they were same person. Also I have found no relationship to Philip Wiehlman. It's all still a big puzzle.

man Regiment, Continental Line, in 1776 and since said company was composed largely of rseidents of what is now Snyder County, it is supposed that he lived in Penn Twp., at the time 1776.

ABRAHAM DEVORE was a native of Northampton County, Pa., and was assessed in Penn Township for the first time in 1785. There is no evidence that he was a landowner at the time. During the Revolution he servedas a ranger, a militiaman, and in the continental line. On May 1, 1782, he was a private, 5th class, in Captain John Long's Company of the 5th Battalion, Northampton Co. Militia. From August 1st to October 9th, 1782, he served in the federal forces. Daniel Devore (1781-1852) probably a son is buried in the Lutheran cemetery at Centerville (Penns Creek Post Office) in Snyder Co. Nicholas may also have been a son. In 1790, his family consisted of one male over and three under 16, and three females.

MICHAEL DIEHLMAN (also Thielman) was a resident of Penn Township prior to 1790. His wife was Christina———. Without doubt they were relatives of Philip, mentioned below. Michael and his wife were also members of the church at Salem. Indications are that they did not remain in the Salem community for a long time.

Same Person as Michael Dillman right side ? or George Michael

FRANCIS DEWART was assessed in Penn Township for the first time in 1789. No further data was located.

PHILIP DIEHLMAN (also Dealman, Thielman, Diel, and later used regularly as Deal or Diel) lived in Penn Township prior to 1790, because at that time his name appeared on the roll of members of the Row's (Salem) Lutheran church, west of Selinsgrove. The compiler believes his name was "Philip Diehl" rather than "Philip Diehlman, or Thielman," and that he lived in Longswamp Township, Berks Co., Pa., in 1768,and he received a warrant of survey for 500 acres on land in Northumberland (now Snyder) County,on December 10, 1772. He evidently lived in Berks County during the war and received depreciation pay for services in the Berks County Militia. An Andrew Diehlman lived in Windsor Township of Berks County. John Deal and John Deal, Jr., were members of the church at Salem in 1811.

MICHAEL DIESE (probably meant Dreese) was assessed in Beaver Twp., for the first time in 1789. No further data was obtained.

ANDREW DILLMAN, JUNIOR, was born on October 21, 1751, and died on May 21, 1823, in Bracken County, Kentucky. Between 1725 and 1730, Andrew Dillman, Sr., and Jacob Dillman, brothers, left Prussia (Germany) for the American Colonies. NOTE: (The compiler believes that the dates of their emigration are wrong, and that it was a later date, probably 1737). Andrew settled in what is now Adams County, Pennsylvania, and Jacob in Franklin County, Virginia. They were of the Dunkard faith, Andrew, Senior, had seven sons, but only three are known to the compiler, and they are, Conrad, George, and Andrew, Jr., subject of this sketch. He was pobably born in what was then York, but now Adams County, Pa. He was listed in Penn Township for the first time in 1776, and designated as a single freeman. In 1785, he was taxed with 100 acres and personal property. About 1794, he and his family moved to Bracken County, Kentucky, via Pittsburgh and the Ohio River, in a flatboat. He had learned the trade of wheelwright, and worked at this occupation for many years. On August 1, 1777, he married Barbara Roush, daughter of George Casper Roush, a pioneer settler in the Freeburg section of Snyder County. On the day of their marriage he returned to the war. Barbara was born in what is now Lebanon County, Pa., on December 17, 1759, and was baptized at the Hill church there. She died in Bracken County, Kentucky, on November 17, 1842. George Casper, father of Barbara, was a Revolutionary soldier, as were her brothers; John Jacob, John, and John George. Casper arrived in America in 1743, from Germany. Andrew Dillman, Jr., and his wife, Barbara Roush, had the following children: first child, born 1778, died in infancy; Eve, born 1779; George, born in March, 1781; John, born 1783, and baptized the same year at the old Zion Lutheran church, about a mile north of Freeburg, Pa., Susan, born May 29, 1785; Barbara, born, February 2, 1787; Frederick, born on November 14, 1788; Andrew, born on November 7, 1790; Julia, born on October 15, 1791; Catherine, born on Dec 22, 1792; Elizabeth, born on December 18, 1795; Conrad, born on October 29, 1798; and Samuel, born in 1800. Andrew Dillman served under Captain Lewis Farmer in the 2nd Pennsylvania Regiment, Continental Line, and participated in the Battle of Long Island in 1776. On September 9, 1778, he was still a member of the 2nd Pennsylvania Regiment. He also participated in the battles of the Brandywine, Germantown, Monmouth and Yorktown. He was a pensioner. One record indicates that he was a captain in the Northumberland County Militia after the war. Probably none of his descendants live in this section today. In 1790, his family consisted of one male over and three under 16, and six females. On April 24, 1785, he was an Ensign in the 7th Company, 1st Battalion of the Northumberland County Militia. He also served in Lieut. John Stoy's Company of the 2nd Pa. Regt., in the Revolution.

MICHAEL DILLMAN lived in Penn Township in 1790, and his family consisted of one male over and one under 16, and two females. Michael was probably a brother of Andrew.

same Geor Michael

FRANCIS DITTO (also Dito, Dido, Diddo, etc.) was a native of York County, Pa. Indications are that he was a resident of Penn Township as early as 1780, but he seems not to have been assessed before 1787, where he was taxed with 300 acres of land and personal property. In 1789, he was a resident of Beaver Township, which two years before had been cut from the western part of Penn. Francis lived near the junction of Swift Run and the North Branch of the Middle Creek, in what is today Beaver Township. He was a farmer, but was more keenly interested in hunting and trapping, and because of the scarcity of game in Pennsylvania, he moved to Pickaway County, in 1812. He married Eleanor, the oldest daughter of the pioneer, John Adam Gift in March, 1782. She was born September 15, 1758, and died in Seneca County, Ohio, in 1858. Their children were: John W. (1785-1853), a soldier in the War of 1812; George, Andrew, Johnson, Catherine, and Mary. John W. died in Seneca County, Ohio, in 1853, and his father died in the same county at an earlier date. Francis, his wife, and most of their children are interred in Seneca County. In May of 1780, Francis was a private in Captain John Snyder's Company, and at an other time he served in Captain Michael Weaver's Company from Northumberland County. It has been stated that he also served in the continental line and that he knew General Washington personally.

Francis Ditto was born at or near York, Pa., in 1756 or 1757. At the age of 20 he enlisted in Lieutenant John Stoy's Company of the 2nd Pennsylvania Regiment, Continental Line. His height was five feet six inches, and he was a weaver at the time of his enlistment. He is buried in an old private cemetery on the McIlheny farm in Eden Township, Seneca, Co.,

Ohio. The date of his death was June 16 or June 25, 1841.

Francis lived at McCollisters Town, York Co., when he enlisted for three years in 1777. He wintered at Valley Forge, fought in the Battle of Monmouth, taken prisoner at Newark, later exchanged. He was discharged Jan. 1, 1781. He had a twin brother named Jacob.

JOHN DITZLER was a single freemen in Bethel Township, Lancaster Co., Pa., in 1779. He was assessed in Penn Township for the first time in 1785, and in that year was taxed with 200 acres and personal property. He probably moved on in a few years; because no other data concerning him was located. He probably served in the Lancaster County Militia.

NICHOLAS DORNMILLER lived in Penn Township around the year 1790. His wife was named Mary. Their daughter Mary Catherine, was baptized at the Old Zion Lutheran church, north of Freeburg in 1791. There is some evidence that the name may have been "Dornmayer" instead of "Dornmiller," but the latter seems to be the one generally used. In 1784, Nicholas was taxed with 150 acres of land and personal property in Pine Grove Township, Berks County, Pa. On August 26, 1776, he was a private in Captain Michael Wolf's Company, stationed at South Amboy, N. J.

GEORGE DOWNER was taxed in what is now Penn Township in 1768. His name does not appear again. On September 3, 1792, a George Downer was granted a warrant of survey for 400 acres in Luzerne County, Pa. No military record was found.

JOHN JACOB DREESE (also Dries, Driess, Tries Treese, Trees, Driese, etc.) was born in Germany about the year 1720, and died in the western part of Snyder County, Pa., in 1794, and is probably buried at Beaver Springs, or Hassingers Old Cemetery. He embarked for America on the British ship "Neptune," John Mason, master, at Rotterdam, Holland, and landed at the port of Philadelphia, where he took the oath of allegiance to the English Government on Oct. 4, 1752. He lived in Berks or Northampton County, or both. He was a blacksmith, and in 1779, he was assessed with 250 acres and personalty in Albany Township, Berks County, Pa. He owned land in Penn Township as early as 1780, but did not become a resident of the district until 1785, and in that year he was taxed with 200 acres and personal property. The same year he was granted a warrant of survey for an additional 100 acres in Northumberland (now Snyder) County. In 1789, he lived in Beaver Township. In his will, which was recorded at Sunbury, Pa., in 1794, he mentions the following as his children; Jacob Jr., John, Mary Magdalene, Peter, Mary Elizabeth, and Christina. He served in Capt. Nelson's Company, Northampton Co. Militia. Jacob had a brother named John.

JOHN JACOB DREESE, JR., probably came to what is Snyder County with his parents in the year 1785. He was born in Berks or Northampton County, Pa., in 1753, and died in the vicinity of Beavertown in August of 1823. He is buried in the old cemetery at Beaver Springs. Under the name John Trees he served in the Cumberland County Militia. There is some evidence to indicate that he may have preceeded his parents to the southwestern Snyder County section, and while living there, probably as a tenant on some of his father's land, served with the Cumberland County military organization.

JOHN DREESE was a son of John Jacob Dreese, Sr. He was born on August 21, 1752, probably at sea, and died in what is now Snyder County, Pa., in August, 1823. He is buried in the old cemetery at Hassinger's church, west of Middleburg, and his grave is marked "John Tris." He was taxed in Beaver Township for the first time in 1789. Under Pennsylvania Rifleman in 1776. He left no children.

PETER DREESE was a son of John Jacob Dreese, Sr. He was born in Albany Township, Berks County, Pa., about the year 1760. He probably came to what is now Snyder County about the year 1785, and was assessed in Beaver Township for the first time in 1789. In February, 1809, he was one of the executors of his uncle John's estate. He served in Captain Henry Hagenbuck's Company of the 2nd. Battalion, Northampton Co. Militia.

JOHN DREESE, brother of John Jacob, Sr., died in what is now Snyder County, on August 17, 1809. He is buried in the Old Hassinger Cemetery. His wife was named Anna Maria. They had a son John, Jr., and supposedly other children. He may have been the John Trees who served in the Cumberland County militia during the Revolution.

FREDERICK DREONE, surgeon, was assessed in Penn Township for the first time in 1798. No Militiary record was found for him., His stay in the section must have been short, because later lists do not carry his name.

FREDERICK DRUCKEMILLE

a resident, but not a land owner i the village of Manheim, Lancaste

the following children: John Freder

Barbara. The last four children wer quite young at the time of their fath

Druckmiller, who arrived from Ger many in the ship "Beulah" on Sep tember 7, 1753. Frederick served i the 5th Company, 7th Battalion c
the Lancaster County Militia.

JOHN DRUCKENMILLER wa
probably a brother of Frederick. H died in Mahantango Township i 1799. The compiler was unable t learn when he first came to Mahan of Frederick, he no doubt served i the Revolution, probably in Lancas indicate that John was a relative c Frederick, mentioned above, but tha

he was not his brother.

Ohio. The date of his death was June 16 or June 25, 1841.

Francis lived at McCollisters Town, York Co., when he enlisted for three years in 1777. He wintered at Valley Forge, fought in the Battle of Monmouth, taken prisoner at Newark, later exchanged. He was discharged Jan. 1, 1781. He had a twin brother named Jacob.

JOHN DITZLER was a single freemen in Bethel Township, Lancaster Co., Pa., in 1779. He was assessed in Penn Township for the first time in 1785, and in that year was taxed with 200 acres and personal property. He probably moved on in a few years; because no other data concerning him was located. He probably served in the Lancaster County Militia.

NICHOLAS DORNMILLER lived in Penn Township around the year 1790. His wife was named Mary. Their daughter Mary Catherine, was baptized at the Old Zion Lutheran church, north of Freeburg in 1791. There is some evidence that the name may have been "Dornmayer" instead of "Dornmiller," but the latter seems to be the one generally used. In 1784, Nicholas was taxed with 150 acres of land and personal property in Pine Grove Township, Berks County, Pa. On August 26, 1776, he was a private in Captain Michael Wolf's Company, stationed at South Amboy, N. J.

GEORGE DOWNER was taxed in what is now Penn Township in 1768. His name does not appear again. On September 3, 1792, a George Downer was granted a warrant of survey for 400 acres in Luzerne County, Pa. No military record was found.

JOHN JACOB DREESE (also Dries, Driess, Tries Treese, Trees, Driese, etc.) was born in Germany about the year 1720, and died in the western part of Snyder County, Pa., in 1794, and is probably buried at Beaver Springs, or Hassingers Old Cemetery. He embarked for America on the British ship "Neptune," John Mason, master, at Rotterdam, Holland, and landed at the port of Philadelphia, where he took the oath of allegiance to the English Government on Oct. 4, 1752. He lived in Berks or Northampton County, or both. He was a blacksmith, and in 1779, he was assessed with 250 acres and personalty in Albany Township, Berks County, Pa. He owned land in Penn Township as early as 1780, but did not become a resident of the district until 1785, and in that year he was taxed with 200 acres and personal property. The same year he was granted a warrant of survey for an additional 100 acres in Northumberland (now Snyder) County. In 1789, he lived in Beaver Township. In his will, which was recorded at Sunbury, Pa., in 1794, he mentions the following as his children; Jacob Jr., John, Mary Magdalene, Peter, Mary Elizabeth, and Christina. He served in Capt. Nelson's Company, Northampton Co. Militia. Jacob had a brother named John.

JOHN JACOB DREESE, JR., probably came to what is Snyder County with his parents in the year 1785. He was born in Berks or Northampton County, Pa., in 1753, and died in the vicinity of Beavertown in August of 1823. He is buried in the old cemetery at Beaver Springs. Under the name John Trees he served in the Cumberland County Militia. There is some evidence to indicate that he may have preceeded his parents to the southwestern Snyder County section, and while living there, probably as a tenant on some of his father's land, served with the Cumberland County military organization.

JOHN DREESE was a son of John Jacob Dreese, Sr. He was born on August 21, 1752, probably at sea, and died in what is now Snyder County, Pa., in August, 1823. Township in 1790, the same year that his son Frederick died. His will is recorded at Sunbury, Pa., and mentions his wife Anna Mary, and their children: Frederick and Elizabeth Steffer (intended probably for Steffen). The compiler believes that Peter served in the Lancaster or Northumberland County Militia, but did not find a record. Peter was born about the year 1722. Later data shows that John Frederick and his sister Elizabeth (Mrs. Andrew Haeffer or Heffer, each inherited 180 acres of land from their father when he died early in 1790. Frederick's half, after his death was sold to Andrew Morr and his sons, and later to Mathias Spotz of Berks County.

LIEUTENANT-COLONEL CHARLES DRUM was assessed with personal property in Strasburg Township Lancaster County, Pa., in 1779. On July 20, 1784, he was granted a warrant for 324 acres in Northumberland (now Snyder) County. A certain tract of land in or near Selinsgrove, was deeded to him and others in 1779. He became a resident of Penn Township in 1792, and lived in Selinsgrove. In 1794, he was taxed with a gristmill and sawmill. On November 25, 1795, he, Simon Snyder and Colonel Peter Hosterman were appointed by the court to locate a road from near Freeburg to Sunbury. In 1800, he was one of a board of viewers to locate a road across the Isle of Que from Selinsgrove to the Susquehanna River. In 1801, he was a subscriber to the fund for the erection of the First Lutheran church of Selinsgrove. On September 19, 1802, he was Penn Township's delegate to the Republican convention, held at Metzger's Hotel at Lewisburg. In 1804 he served on a board of viewers to locate a road from Salem to New Berlin. On January 1, 1806, he was appointed a Justice of the Peace for Penn Township. In April, 1809, he was one of the viewers for the erection of a new bridge over the Middle Creek at Bake Oven Hill, south of Selinsgrove. In April, 1811, he was appointed to a board of viewers to locate a site for a bridge across the Penns Creek, north of Selinsgrove. For years he conducted a tavern at the corner of Front and Pine streets on the Isle of Que, and for several decades that part of Selinsgrove was called Drumtown. Colonel Drum was born in 1748, and died in Selinsgrove, Pa., on October 15, 1811, and is is supposed that he is buried in the old Lutheran cemetery at that place. This John Sells apparently remained in Huntingdon county, Pa for several years after his father and brothers removed to Ohio about 1798, as records seem to agree that his John Sells and family removed from Huntingdon Co., Pa to Franklin Co., Ohio in 1808/9, joining his father and brothers in founding the site of Dublin.

John Sells ran the Sells and Ebey saw and grist mill, he also built a saw mill on Indian Run shortly after the war of 1812. The same year he started a distillery in Dublin, Ohio. Enoch Evans was the pilot, Abraham Sells, the cook, John Sells and Moses Davis, the hands. His son, Fletcher Sells made the trip. They had a perilous trip, but got over the dams and sold their cargo in Maysville, Kentucky".

note: this sums up what I've gleaned about this John Sells and Elizabeth Moyer--as facts, instead of tradition. Could it be-- wife had died when he sold out, in 1809 and removed to Brown Co Ohio and died there as you said, in 1815?? But--if he did, with whom did he live? And if he did die in Ohio--seems odd his body would be taken back to Ky for burial.

note: I have an old picture of my grand mother Susan Isabelle Sells who m: Geo. Washington Moyer--she is wearing the hat made by John Sells and that is same hat that I have the crown of today. (it's as modern as today(the hat). Vi Neeb.

If this John Sells Was (Proof needed) ~~of the~~ S/o the John Sells Hatter of Pa it MIGHT tie in.

re: a letter from Carolyn C. Choppin in Apr 1970: quote:

"The Rev. war soldier JOHN SELL is not the common ancestor of the Sell(s) family in America. The D.A.R. records are NOT CORRECT. I repeat: the D.A.R. records which claim that John Sell and Sarah(Sally) Haak were the parents of Ludwick, John, Solomon, Abraham, Anthony, and Sophis are Not correct. Much work has been done to disprove this data, which was submitted to the D.A.R. by the Columbus, Ohio branch of Sells who wanted a Rev. War soldier more than they wanted a true genealogy. Conclusive proof is found in the will of Anthony Sells, of which I have translated(it was written in German) copy, and will send you a copy of this if you wish it. NO ONE, has yet located any proof that a John Sell and Sarah Haak family even existed. end of quote.

As of 1979-- the Will of Anthony Sells (mentioned in above letter) had NOT been disproved and therefore it seems to me some one surely did give Anthony Sells and wife Catherine Snyder's children to the supposedly John Sells and wife Sarah Haak.

note: Carolyn C. Choppin is of theMormon Church; has done extensive genealogy and is still doing it. She is Editor and publisher of "THE CELLE NEWSLETTER published quarterly--- 18¢ per issue or $1.30 for two years(8 issues). "For the American Cell, Gsell, Seale(s), Sell(s), Zell, Zelle, etc clan. As Carolyn stated in her Xmas 1979 letter to me, Vi Neeb, the ""ho's who" lines seem to get longer with additional proven surnames. Her address as of Jan 1980 is: Carolyn C. Choppin 309 Greenpark Way, San Jose, California 95136.

She has about 40 pages of Family Records in PART 1 which starts with the Anthony Sells & wife Catherine Snyder- plus many many other pages of their descendants!. Plus, census records, church records, pictures, a picture of the Celle family--and the building in Germany which gives a brief history of the surname when it was first required; the bldg is still in use. cost me 10¢ for a photo copy. She has "The "First Four Generations of the Sells Family in America by Ray Sells Morrish, M.D. Flint, Mich. (1956) note: I believe Mr Morrish died couple yrs or so ago. This has abt 3 typewritten pages and worth so much as it gives a lot of the history and where the Sells family came from to this country.

"The CellE Newsletter" is a sharing, non profit-- family records; she will want you to share your own immediate connections to the Sell family. About 2 yrs ago the cost of the Family Record and Family Sheets were 5¢ per sheet and believe me they're COMPLETE. I highly recommend you to at least write to her. And do tell her I gave you her address.

JOHNSON COUNTY INDIANA pg 317 Early Settlements:

In 1820 the lands were surveyed and thrown on the market. So far as can be learned Jacob Whetzel and his son Ezra were the first whitemen ever in Johnson County. It was in 1820 John Campbell came from Tenn., built a cabin one half mile south of the present location of Edinburg, near the Bartholomew County line. About the same time ABRAHAM SELLS came from OHIO and settled. He entered the county by Whetzel's trace & located at the mouth of Pleasant Run. Soon after John Campbell settled, the following persons, with their families, located: Joseph Bishop, Simon Shaffer, George Cutsinger, Samuel Herly, William Williams, Joseph Townsend, Arthur Robinson, William R. Hinsly, William Foster, JESSE WELLS, Isaac Marshall; these all settled near Campbell innwhat is not called Blue River Twp., near the present town of Edinburg, adjoining the Bartholomew County line.
The next settlement in the county was in White River Twp., near the cabin of ABRAHAM SELLS, at the mouth of Pleasant Run in the spring of 1821; Thomas Lorne, George Doty, JAMESRICHEY, Daniel Boaz, Jude Franklin and a number of others, with their families, that year became permanent settlers.

A settlement was also commenced in the S.W. part of the county, during the same year. Robert Worl made the first opening in this part in the spring. Before coming winter, he was followed by Benjamin Crews, William Strain, Joab Woodruff, George Blankenship, PHILIP MOOR, JAMES JACOBS, JOHN S. MILLER, with their families.

JOHN LOGAN, a Baptist minister was the first preacher in Johnson County in 1823; in the spring of 1823 the Blue River Baptist Church was organized, and Logan is saidto have preached sometime before the organization.

Re: Descendents of John Sells, 1747-1815, son of Anthony & Catherine...

Thank you Mrs. Neeb for the many pages you have copied from the records of Linda H. Wilson...I regret only that you did not include Linda's address. You quoted her as saying that "if any records are on file in Brown or Clermont Co., Ohio" Linda will "dig them out"! I presume than that she lives near Cincinatti...and should therefore get in tough with Mr. Huff...so they can pool efforts.

Someone needs to obtain a complete copy of the probate file of John Sells, died 1815 in Clearmont County, Ohio.
If the will names only sons Abraham and Benjamin and daughter Nancy DeWitt...this poses several questions:
(1) Is the John Sells Jr. who signed his grandfather"s property release in 1793 (Sells-Richer Indenture; see Part 9, page 3) in fact the eldest son of John Sells, 1747-1815, son of Anthony??? Note: Ludwick's son John, born 1774 = age 19 in 1793...and Solomon's son John, also born a. 1774 = age 18-20 in 1793 did not sign the Indenture, nor would they be identified as "John Sells junior"... and furthermore, Ludwick's eldest son, Samuel, b. 1771 = age 22 in 1793 did not sign. What was the legal age when their signature would have been required? Or was it simply that "John Sells junior was married? Or did he sign simply because he could write? (John Sell and John Sells junior are the only ones who signed in English script.)

(2) Is this John Sells Jr. the same John Sells who shows up in Bracken County, Kentucky from 1798 to 1809??? Is he the one who married in 1799 to Elizabeth Moyer?? = Part 26, page 1
What happened to him after 1809? Did he move West? Or did he die before 1815 and is therefore not named in his father's will? Perhaps the complete probate file can answer this last question.

(3) Is the Abraham Sells named as executor in his father's will in Clearmont County, Ohio in 1815 the Abraham Sells of Part 28... born a. 1770, died 1838???
Or is this the Abraham Sells of Part 25...born 1780, died 1850 in Illinois? (It would seem that the former is more probable since an executor living near by is more common than one living in another state...Abraham, 1780-1850, of Part 25 was in Indiana by 1810 and in Illinois by 1824) So....who is he? How then is he related to the other Sells families???

(4) Who is the Abraham Sells in Frankstown, Huntingdon County, Penn. in the 1820 census? If he is not a grandson of Anthony & Catherine, could he be a great grandson?

(5) If John Sells, 1747-1815, son of Anthony, had only two sons; who are the two males under 10 in his household in the 1810 census?

Please - all of you - answer~~e~~ as soon as possible! I would like to include this data - accurately - in the next newsletter.
Sincerely, Mrs. Carolyn Cell Choppin

Excerpt: from: "THE HISTORY OFJOHNSON COUNTY INDIANA by Brant & Fuller 1888 in 1821 ABRAHAM SELLS, a Virginian, came to Washington Co, Ind. mid Feb. leaving hthe female members of his family in that County, accompanied by his BROTHER John Sells and 4 of his sons, and 3 of his own, Isaac, William and Franklin, he set out for White River and reached Jacob Whetzel's abt the 1st of March. He had crossed over the Indian trail on the east bank of White River, upwhich he traveled, entering White River Twp on Fri March 3rd 1821 and at once took possession of White's Wigwam. Abraham Sells had come to stay; he brought 75 hogs, 11 cattle, horses, besides a goodly assortment of tools & provisiions for the summer. Their families were to come in the fall. After the crops were laid by, a of the company returned to Wash. Co. where John Sells, the brother of Abraham and the latter's son Isaac died. Late in the fall the others with their families and household stuff rejoined their white brethren and the permanency of their settlement was maintained.

JOHNSON COUNTY EARLY SETTLEMENTS:

In 1820 the lands were surveyed and thrown on the market. So far as can be learned Jacob Whetzle and his son Ezra were the first white men ever in Johnson county--in 1820 John Campbell came from Tenn, built a cabin 1 1/2 m south of the present location of Edinburg. About the same time,ABRAHAM Sells Came from Ohio and settled.*(note: this must be another "ABraham Sells)
OR - b in Va - and Ohio - then to Wash Co Ind - on to Johnson Co Ind.

The next settlement in the county was in White River Twp nearthe cabin of ABRAHAM SELLS' at the mouth of Pleasant Run in the spring of 1821; Thomas Lorne, George Doty, JAMES RICHEY, Daniel Boaz, Jude Franklin and a number of others, with their families, that year, became permanent settlers.

note: from what I've gathered these Sells families were from Va to Ohio, (Brown/Clermont Co) to Washington , Morgan, Johnson Counties Indiana-- in Johnson Co--the settlement was near Edinburg Indiana--just barely across the Shelby Co Line-- and when I was a child-- to age 13 I lived with my parents & family near Smithland Indiana-- alsmost a stone's throw from Edinburg and never knew any Sells family was near about!. And doubt that my folks did either.

B/CCC FAMILY OF SOLOMON SELLS AND MARGARET ASHBAUGH Jan 1970

The deed dated 31 Oct 1792, from Henry Harkleroad to Solomon Sells, being tract of land granted by patent #518 to Henry Harkleroad by the State of North Carolina for 166 1/2 acres of land was recorded in Deed Book 2, pg 582, listed in Sullivan County, Tennessee.
On Dec. 19, 1796 Solomon Sells bought some additions of land from Isaac Baker of Washington Co., Virginia; 550 acres for $923.
In deeds dated 23 May 1798, Solomon Sells and wife, Margaret, deeded separate pieces of property to each of three of their sons: Abram,(Abraham) John and Henry. These deeds are recorded in Volume 2, pgs 152,153, and 154 Washington Co., Va. (would this indicate that these three were his eldest sons?)/

On 21 May 1816 Benjamin Sells was appointed Adms. under letters testamentary of Court to sell the personal property of Solomon Sells.
(Proof that Solomon Sells died before 21 May 1816 in Washington Co. Va.).

On 7 May 1832 in Wash. Co., Va, was deeded to a Nathan Worley, by the chn of Solomon Sells, the home owned jointly by them as his heirs. The children were: Fanny Carr, Andrew Sells and wife Rebecca, Peter Sells and wife Hannah Benjamin Sells and wife Lydia; Jacob Sells and wife Mary, Allen McDonald and wife Susan. (Note: does the order of names of these chn indicate their order of birth: Does the absence of names of Abraham, John and Henry indicate that they rec'd their "inheritance" in 1798, and thus only the younger children shared in the estate remaining after Solomon's death? Is it correct to assume that the sale of this property, without mention of Margaret Ashbaugh Sells, indicates that she died before this date?)

Some say that Solomon had a wife prior to or after Margaret Ashbaugh, Some cite the record: "2 Dec 1794 Swedes Church, Philadelphia, Solomon Sell married Anna Maria Orner". However, in the Will of Henry Ashbaugh dated 2 April 1781, probated 11 Mar 1789, he names a daughter, Margaret Sell, to whom he makes a gift. His children named in the Will are: John, Frederick, Andrew, Sarah Ashbaugh Smith, and Margaret Ashbaugh Sell.
Then on 23 May 1798 Solomon Sells "and wife Margaret" deeded property to three of their sons(see above). So it must have been some other Solomon who married Anna Maria Orner.

A Solomon was born and raised in what is presently Mt Joy Twp. Adams Co., Penn. However, from the 1730's until 1748 this area was under the jurisdiction of Prince George County, Maryland In 1748 Frederick Co. Maryland was established, and claimed jurisdiction. About 1763/5 the Mason-Dixon line was established, giving jurisdiction of this area to York Co., Penn. In 1800 it became Adams Co., Penn.

This data from records of: Mr Louis Duermyer, Mr. Edwin Stovall Mrs Willie Mae King; Mrs Alberta Stansbury; Mrs. T.A. Egger, Jr; Mrs Oma Smith; and Mr. H.W. Delzell.

Re-"a" John Sells of Bracken Co Ky – this following Was Copied for me Several years ago from the Brooksville, Ky Courthouse (by my "fulla beans Cousin) Deed BK B-Pgs 345-46 april 18-1809 John Sells sold his negro slaves: Nat, Fanny, Phillis (Child), + heating utensils to John Payne. Then John Sells sold all his property in Augusta to John Payne. Sells' Wife's name Was Elizabeth. The property Was a brick house and hatter's Shop: On City Platte number 4.

Later – this Abstract of Same Deed Was Copied for me by Mrs. Betty Cline of Augusta, Ky as follows: Deed Book D - Pg 277 - June 13-1812: Deed between John Payne of Augusta, County of Bracken, Commonwealth of Ky., and John Sells of County of Franklin, State of Ohio. John Payne took a mortgage from John Sells April 19-1809 on house and Lot #4 in Augusta in amount of $1408.06. Sells paid Payne $1425.00 And Payne released the property to Sells and heirs.

So – Could it be that this John Sells hatter – in latter abstract of Deed is the one who left a Will in Clermont Co Ohio 1815 but not Probated there??? OR is this Another John Sells???
How lucky you + Helen Moore are that your Johnsons Stayed "PUT"!!

Another item that I did NOT know Was important – that you Can add to my Family Records – I'd sent For a Zerox Copy of the marr. license and marriage Certificate of my Grand Parents:
Marr. Certificate states: "This is to Certify That on the Twenty first day of August 1867, the Rites of Marriage Were legally Solemnized by me, between George W. Morford and Mary Ann Downing in the County of Bracken in the Presence of Squire Osburn and Downing.

3. Elizabeth Sells, m: 1819 Jacob Shultz, she d: before 1838, leaving one child: Polly Shultz.

note: this is an assumption---1977)

Mar 1980: note: I doubt that assumption BECAUSE William Sellsd: 1853 ae 55
Rachel(CONSORT* of William) d: 1845 ae 46yrs.
* doesn't "Consort" mean spouse living? No Relict does LHW
if so--then Census above in 1840 Wm. would have been ca 42
Rachel " " " 41
I wonder if William Sells married a 2nd time--?????
I also wonder if in the 1840 Census; there were others(and not Wm & Rachel) living in the household of Ellen(Eleanor)Sells?? Could be Wm & Rachel moved elsewhere???? Another puzzle!.

RECORDS AND FAMILY OF WILLIAM SELLS

William Sells, son of Abraham and Eleanor Sells, see part 28, pg 1.

Records:

1817-Brown County, Ohio Marriages: William Sells m: 26 June 1817 to Rachel Mefford daughter of John Mefford + Elizabeth ?

1820-Census, Ple. Twp., Brown county, Ohio:
William Sills 1 male 16-26
1 female 16-26
1 female 0-10

1830 and 1840 Census: appears to be in his parent's household.

1838-named in his father's Will.

1850 Census, Union Twp., Brown Co., Ohio:
William Sells, age 52, male, born Penn.
Eleanor Sells, age 83, female born Penn.

1851-named in his mother's Will.
1852-William Sells left no Will, but his estate was probated 23 Oct.1852. No heirs are listed in the probate.

William Sells and Rachel Mefford apparently had one daughter born about 1820. Rachel appears to have died by 1830, but the daughter appears to be still living in 1840. It is possible that William remarried between 1830 and 1840 to a widow with a daughter about the age of his own. If there were any other children, they must have died very young.

William was born about 1798 in Pennsylvania, and apparently died in 1852, a span of only 54 years.

note: From Mrs Linda H. Wilson: Pisgah Ridge Cem., Brown Co. Ohio(tombstone inscriptions)Union Twp:
William Sells died 27 Sept 1853 aged 55 yr.
Rachel Sells(Consort of William) and daughter of John and Elizabeth Mefford, died June 24,1845, aged 46 yrs.

Linda,I added this after receiving your letter of Feb 8,1980. .

frm: CELLE NEWSLETTER Apr 1977 No. 26 and also in Oct. 1977".

Mr Clifton B. Huff of Conn. is seeking the ancestry of and further information abt his 2nd gr grandparents, John & Lucretia Sells. John Sells b: ca 1815-1823 in Ky or Va, & had resided in Henderson Col., Ill. frm 1846-51 in Iowa and in the 1860's in Missouri from 1877 to 1886. The ch. of John & Lucretia Sells were: George W. Sells b: 1849, Ill,; (2 &3 twins), Isabella & Arabella Sells b: 1861 Iowa; William R. Sells b: 1862 in Iowa.
In a search for these relationships Mr Huff located a MARRIAGE RECORD IN MASON CO., KY for Abraham Sels & Elizabeth Mays. He found Deeds in Greene Co., Ill, 1824 to 1838 naming Abraham Sells and wf Elizabeth. Also in Greene Co., Ill. is a marr. record for John Sells & Jane Stinnett. The 1850 Census of Hancock Co., Ill. shows that John Sells, age 40, with wf Jane, 7 children and Abraham Sells, age 70.
In searching A "COMPLETE PROBATE FILE" Mr Huff located the file of James Sells(son of John Sells,* Part 9, pg 14) which details most of the heirs of James s brothers and sisters, because James himself had no children and had never married. Therefore his file contains letters naming the heirs of his brothers and sisters. However, it apparently is not complete as the brother Mr Huff had especially wished to find---William is the only mentioned, but his heirs are not. This file in in the Fulton Co., Illinois records.

* pg 14 is John Sells c 1774-1827, 2nd son of SOLOMON SELLS(1750-1816)

12 April 1982

There is no one "Who's Who" on American Gunmakers; rather, there are hundreds of reference books, countless articles, and much else that is available to the serious researcher. Space is the problem. For example; I consulted at least twelve reference books while I attempted to find information for you on "Michael Sells."

"AMERICAN GUN MAKERS" by Gluckman and Satterlee, The Stackpole Co., Harrisburg, Pa., has this: "M. Sells: Unlocated. Curly maple fullstock percussion Kentucky rifle. 'W. W. Tweed' on stock." "M. B. Sells: Georgetown, Brown Co., Ohio, 1839." Also listed are Benjamin Sells, Georgetown, Ohio, 1835-1865, and James Sells, also Ohio, plus N. F. Sells, Laurelville, Hocking Co., Ohio, 1877-82. A Frederick Sell is unlocated; made early flintlock rifles.

From "A CHECKLIST OF OHIO GUNSMITHS, AND RELATED TRADESMEN, OF THE 18th AND 19th CENTURIES," by Donald A. Hutslar, Publisher; Golden Age Arms Co., Worthington, Ohio 1970, mentions a Benjamin Sells who made guns in Georgetown, Ohio from 1850-1875. And, M. B. Sells shows up again as making guns at Georgetown from 1825-1850.

These books are very good source books, but in any of the reference books, unless a maker made enough guns to become prominent in his field, he usually doesn't show up in even the most exhaustive of the books.

I believe this family of gunmakers to be decendants of the famous Jacob Sell, of Germany Township, York County, Pa. (ca. 1750-1825). I have read, and seen, some of his work, both in person, and via the books. He was one of the originators of the true Pa/Ky rifle. There was a Jacob Sell, Jr., and Frederick Sell, his sons. Both great makers. This family probably migrated to Ohio; at least that is my own conclusion.

You might be able to obtain further material from the tax lists. I'd start with Jacob Sell, Sr..

I hope that I have been of some assistance.

Sincerely,

and Lottie. Marion and John S. are deceased. In politics Mr. Calkins is independent, voting for men not party. He and his wife are members of the Baptist church.

A. J. BREWER, farmer and stock-raiser, section 21, Cass Township, is a representative of two of the pioneer families of the county, the Brewers and the Frakes, both of whom came in an early day. He was born in Webster City February 24, 1857, a son of A. J., Sr., and Harriet (Frakes) Brewer. When he was a babe his father died, and he was reared by his mother on the farm in Cass Township, receiving his education in the district schools. He was married September 1, 1877, to Sarah Pringle, a daughter of Thomas and Nancy (Welch) Pringle. After his marriage he settled on the farm where he now lives, which was at that time under good cultivation and well improved. It is well adapted to both stock and grain, being watered by White Fox Creek. In politics Mr. Brewer is independent. In religion he and his wife are members of the United Brethren church.

* * *

J. D. SELLS, of Wright County, Iowa, is one of the prominent early settlers of Wright and Hamilton Counties, having been identified with both since 1857. He was born March 29, 1818, in Ohio, a son of Benjamin and a grandson of John Sells, who was a native of Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania, and of German parentage. His mother, Catherine (Baum) Sells, was a native of Bucks County, Pennsylvania, also of German ancestry. His parents were married in Ohio and made that State their home till their death. They had a family of eleven children—Michael, Mary, Samuel, John, Barbara, Sarah, Susan, Mahala, Benjamin, Catherine and J. D. J. D. Sells was reared in his native State and lived there until 1836, when he moved to Rush County, Indiana, and from there in the fall of 1845 to Mercer County, Illinois. In 1846 he returned to Ohio, and lived in Brown County until 1857, when he came to Iowa, making the journey with teams and being thirty-four days on the way. He had bought 320 acres of wild land, 240 being in Wright and eighty in Hamilton County, before coming, and twenty-five acres had been broke and a log house built. This house is still standing and is now used as a machine house. Here Mr. Sells has since lived, and to his first purchase added until he owned 1,100 acres in one tract, which he has divided with his sons, reserving 600 acres as his homestead. His farm is one of the best in the counties, and is watered by the Boone River, making it especially desirable for stock, which Mr. Sells makes a specialty. He was born March 26, 1828, in Ohio, a son of Benjamin and a grandson of John Sells, who was a native of Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania, and of German parentage. This house is still standing and is now used as a machine house. Ella Day plaintiff | Br.Co. Prob. ct. in lieu vs | Petition.

Benjamin Sells | defendant

1 Plaintiff says that on the day of January 1877 she was and has ever since been a married woman and a non-resident of this State.

2 On said day of January 1877, the defendant who had been her guardian, and who had failed to file his final account as such guardian on her becoming of age, filed and finally settled his account as her guardian and obtained his discharge from this Court, it being found by the Court that there was nothing in his hands belonging to the plaintiff, of which proceedings this plaintiff had no actual notice.

3 Plaintiff says that this order was obtained by a fraud upon her and upon the Court, in this, that the defendant claimed on said settlement a credit of six hundred dollars ($600.00) paid to this plaintiff, and exhibitited to the Court in support thereof a receipt signed by her, which receipt was obtained from her by false representations of the effects thereof. She says that she never did in fact receive from the said Benjamin Sells the said sum of six hundred dollars or any part thereof, or anything in lieu thereof: and that the said Benjamin Sells still owes her the whole of said amount.

She therefore asks that the said settlement be opened up and that on a final hearing such order be made as the facts may require

MRS. LINDA WILSON OF GEORGETOWN, OHIO RECENTLY sent a copy of the "Petition for Dower" filed by Sarah Sells on 17 Sept 1859 in Brown County Ohio--Georgetown,Courthouse. An abstract of this petition reads as follows.

"Petitioner, Sarah Sells of said County of Brown and lawfully married to one Benjamin Sells Sen....(in) 1841, said Benjamin Sells has departed this life...June 1859..said Benjamin Sells Sen. left the following children, grandchildren, Heirs, to wit: Benjamin Sells Jr & Samuel Sells of Brown County, Ohio, Joseph Sells of ---County,Iowa; Michael Sells of Bracken County, Ky.,; Mary Davis, late Sells & Thomas Davis her husband of Rush County, Indiana; Barbara Plummer late Sells of Rush County, Indiana, Catherine Johnson late Sells & Casper Johnson her husband of Rush County, Indiana; Susan Woods late Sells & John Woods her husband of----County, Iowa; George Willis, Joseph Willis, and ----Willis, children and Heirs of Sarah Willis late Sells now deceased of Rush County, Indiana; Benjamin Sells, Rosanna Sells, Samuel Sells & the other children whose names are not known to your petitioner, of John Sells deceased of Rush county, Indiana; and----Maddox, child of Cynthia Maddox who was a daughter of John Sells deceased of Rush County, Indiana.

This Document would seem to clearly establish the Michael Sells of Bracken County, Kentucky(Part 27, pg 1). Therefore the Michael Sells and descendants outlined on Part 26, pages 2 and 3 should in fact be on Part 27, page 2. I shall endeavor to revise these pages promptly and trust you will destroy the incorrect pages.

CONGRATULATIONS VI NEEB, on a long quest now proven. Your one remaining "missing Piece" is now the parentage of your JOHN SELLS who died in Clearmont County in 1815--the father of Benjamin, and now proven to be the grand father of your Michael Sells of Bracken County, Kentucky".
If everyone was asdiligent and persistant as you, my dear Viola, we would all surely have successfully extended our pedigrees several generations too. Congratulations on a well deserved victory!!!

Michael Sells married 29 Sept. 1820 to (Mary) Hannah Dillman/Tillman Michael Sells married 15 Nov. 1820 to Sophreg Haskell.

(Note: family records indicate that this Michael married Hannah Dillman, and that Hannah Dillman Sells died in 1860.) @

1830 - Census records of Brown County, Ohio; Lewis twp.:
Michael Sells: 1 male 20-30, 1 male 15-20, 1 male 0-5, 1 female 20-30, 1 female 5-10.

No further records have been found to establish what became of this Michael Sells. Some of his records appear to have become mixed with those of the Michael Sells of Bracken County, Kentucky (see Part 26, page 2), Is it possible that they are the same person????

2. MRS VIOLET DAVIS JANZEN of 6601 W. Canal Blvd., Tracy, Calif. 95376 is a desc. of William H. Sells who m: Elizabeth Ebey;" at the time we corresponded in 1973 she thought William H. in my June 1977 "CELLE NEWSLETTER" by Carolyn Choppin, a Mr. Clifton Huff of 4855 Greenwood Terrace , Cinn., Ohio 45226 was researching the Abraham Sells family; he believed he was a son of Anthony Sells Jr(a possiblity of Abraham being the son of John Sells Jr-1747-1815 that you had). I do not know if he has as yet, found out; at that time,1977 he said Abraham Sells m: in Mason Co., Ky Elizabeth Mayes/Mays; and in 1810 they had a son born in Indiana--we believe--no proof, that they went on to Ill.

these 2 addresses pertain to the Benjamin Sells Sr. & wf Catherine Baum.

1. in one of my "Celle Newsletters" I find MRS. FRANK T. SAYERS of 266 E. North St., Ostrander, Ohio 43061; who has, and is desc. from Benjamin Sells Jr 1815-1882 & wf Sarah Fenton, family records. Her add. was of 1977. Mrs. Sayers said Benjamin Sells Jr had 10 ch-1 d young.

Mr Russell and son Wayne Johnson of Rush Co Ind. whom I visited:(I'd made notes and luckily kept them all) told me that a Judge Howard Houston, of Georgetown, Ohio AND Judge Thomas G. Johnson of Probate and Juvenile Div. Court, Georgetown, Ohio were directly related to the Benjamin Sells Jr and the Johnson family. Perhaps if neither are still living, some of their families still live in Georgetown or Brown Co Ohio. Perhaps you already know this.

Re: Samuel P. Moyer(s) Myers. my Great Grand Pa.

Well- maybe my Mom believed he Was born in Bracken Co, Ky because she Was! I remember my Grandpa George Washington Moyer Very Well- he pronounced his name loud & Clear MiRES but Spelled it Moyer. The Same situation remains in Bracken Co, Ky today too! But I have as yet- to find any Connection With the Meyer(s) line Spelling.

I have no Census record - Ohio or Ky For G. W. Moyer OR Samuel.

Until You told me - I had never been told nor had thought of Checking Census and Who lived beside or near Who I Was searching for! THANKS!

As a Guess only - I believe Samuel Moyer marr. Margaret Newkirk And lived in Br. Co Ohio Until at least 1858 - maybe 1860, — then moved to Bracken Co, Ky about 3 or 3½ miles S. S W. of Brooksville & he died there. in 1877, I do not know When Margaret died but do know she out lived him by Several Years. Her nickname Was "Maggie".

All this leads me to Wonder — IF "a" Philip Moyer (Who m(1) Elizabeth Meyer in Bracken Co, Ky 1801 - She died tween 1812-3. he m(2) a Wid. Sarah Crensperger of Lexington, Ky & at that place.) Could be the father of Samuel P ??

I know this Philip is buried at Smyrna Cem. near Felicity, Ohio.

Before you Wear your brains out - my Grandpa & Grandma Moyer didn't live together - I dont know When they Separated - Never divorced - but evidently their Children Were adults. - my mother "Marguerite & her brother Loy Raymond "Ray" stayed home and kept their Mother til she died, altho my mom married in July 4-1910 - Uncle Ray married later yet & Susan their mother died March 1911. in Augusta, Ky. Geo. W. boarded out among others of the Chn - namely one - Effie Moyer Brooking Wif of Truman.

note: now how this fits as possible parents of Philip (1811-) & Samuel P I don't know--yet.

Believe it was in 1963-9 Washington D.C. Archives said they had no records at hand of any family of Philip Moyer.

A first cousin of mine said that the surname Moyer(s) had NEVER been spelle any other way--UNTIL the clan were on Bracken county Ky soil--then some changed the spelling to Myer(s) thru some misunderstanding and a brawl over ownership or possession over land. She may have been very correct. Because-- at the Shelbyville courthouse, Shelbyville, Indiana I found that my own mother's nee name had been spelled Moyer, Mayers, Meyers, Myers on the entries of birth of myself and brothers--in giving names of my parents and mother's nee name.

Believe/Guessing of now that these were brothers. But who was their father + how was the father related to Daniel Morford (1740 N.J.-1833 Brown Co, Ohio) + Rachel ?? Or to Daniel Morford 1760/1-18— + wf Margaret?

Another of my Clues was the marr of Matilda Morford + John Akins in Dearborn Co Ind. That's near where Daniel Morford III (1793-) + wf Sarah Findley went to from Bracken Co, Ky + died in Franklin Co Ind!

There has to be some Connection to my Ancestor because my mom had Abraham + Patience's names listed on 1 page of a family record Bk she kept.
No clues - no nothin - just their names!

V. Neel.

Abraham Morford owned Property in Minerva, Ky.

in the 1850 Ky Census - Bracken Co
Patience B. Morford was living in the household of Samuel Worthington + wf Sarah (ages 43-32) + son Samuel M. Worthington age 15.

Then I have the 1830 Census Mason Co Ky
Abraham Morford with 3 m - age 20-30
2 m - 15-20
2 m - under 5
1 f - 20-30
1 f - 15-20

So! there's surely umpteen Abraham Morford's too!

JACOB MEFFORD OF CAMPBELL COUNTY, KENTUCKY

Jacob was the son of JOHANNES MEFFERT born24 january, 1732 oberdorfelden, Hesse Co.-Germany. Immigrated 15 Sept. 1749 with his father ANDREAS (ANDREW MEFFERT on the ship "RAINER" I have Jacob's Pension Papers for the Revolution ary War. Jacob was born 1764 in Fredericks Co., Maryland (near Woodsboro). Came to Scott Co., Ky. ca. 1790/93 and then on to Campbell Co., Ky. His father remarried in Maryland and died in Scott Co., Ky. SCOTT CO. KY. WILL BOOK B 1793 page 57. His will is partially burnt and list all his children by his second wife but only William is left in tact in the Will. Jacob had 7 brothers. Not all are proved due the condition of Johannes's will.

ANDREAS (ANDREW) MEFFERT was a cousin of GEORGE CONRAD MEFFERT. Andreas died in Coventry Twp., Chester County, Pennsylvania. Will filed in Philadelphia. Will # 313--1760. I have a copy and have transcribed it.

If you wish any further info on any of the above please let me know but to date only William seems to be in Brown Co., Ohio.

Dear Patricia,

Here are the Mefford Records of Brown Co. as far as I have them. Sorry it took me so long to get back to you but I have just been swamped with my direct line due to a query I placed in the KENTUCKY ANCESTORS. Then too I had to redo the GEORGE CONRAD MEFFORD line for you since I had done it originally some time ago and had not gotten a chance to add all the new material that I had on my group sheets.

There has been much confusion and much misinformation on the Brown County Ohio Meffords. I suspect that DAR memberships were gotten on misinformation. For example: THERE IS NO WAY THAT AND CONRAD MEFFORD COULD BE THE PARENTS OF GEORGE MEFFORD, MASON CO., KY. AND HIS BROTHER JOHN MEFFORD, BROWN CO., KY. Most of the Ohio History list him as their father. First of all there was not an Andrew Conrad Mefford. Their was a ANDREAS (ANDREW) MEFFORD and he only had 2 sons: JOHANNES MEFFERT who after his father died moved ca. 1760 to Fredericks Co., Maryland and then later to Scott Co., Kentucky where he died. He had 8 sons by his first wife: Suzanna Kuntz and 1 son by his second wife: Catherine Lutz, the widow of Michael Trout of Maryland.
CASPER MEFFERT who married Anna Maria Stiegline in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 30 March 1763. They were married in the St. Michaels & Zion Church by Heinrich Muhlenberg, the noted Lutheran Leader who lead an entire congregation into battle during the Revolution. Casper & family went first to Maryland with his Mother & Brother and ca. 1778 moved to Rockingham Co., Va. where he died 28 November, 1805, Court records prove this. HIS SONS:
John Mefford of Logan Co., Kentucky
Casper Mefford, Jr. who died 22 March, 1824 Clark Co., Ohio
George Mefford of Scott Co., Va. (I think this is my direct line but I can not locate a will to date. Think ca. 1830 he went to Tennessee or Mississippi, just not sure.
Benjamin A. Mefford who was in Woodford Co., Ky. in 1816 and is supposed to have died of cancer in Prison for manslaughter but I have not found any records yet.

In Jacob Mefford's Pension Papers (Campbell Co., Ky) he says that his father had only 1 brother and his grandfather had only two cousins GEORGE & PETER who were in the United States. He also says that the family EXTRACTED FROM THE "FRENCH". There is much belief amount the Brown County Meffords that they were English.

The cousin Peter is JOHAN PETER MEFFERT born 12 July 1696 wachen-buchen-Hesse Co.-Germany and immigrated 15 Sept. 1748 on the s "TWO BROTHERS". He and his family remained in Berks Co., Pa. They did not seem to leave Berks Co. until well after 1850.

There were other Mefferts who came to America later. I have the note: the surname spelling of Morford, Mofford, Moford are used in each of these families down thru generation after generation and is still being done that I knowof personally--in 1980.

I personally took a camera snapshot of the tombstone of my grand parents at the K.P.Cem., Brooksville, Ky--on George W. MOFFORD stone and directly behind theirs in the next row was a huge modern stone of his son EVERETT MORFORD and wf Zueann .
G.W, Mofford b 1845- 1926 was a Civil War veteran; a member of the GAR and on that Memorial the surname is spelled Morford and much yrs later grand pa had signed it Morford down on the very bottom of the memorial. The surname is also spelled both ways on the Bracken Co Ky Census records. viz:

$1381 in 1850 Census:		1860 Bracken co Ky census.

Beek Marker 1797-1806 pgs : Continuing data about Daniel Morford , Aaron Morford and William Morford. From Brooksville Ky Courthouse.

Deed Bk M pg 404 is a mortgage : whereas(in brief) Daniel Morford on 19th Sept 1840 conveyed to Aaron Morford both of the county of Bracken and the state of Ky 73 1/2 acres of land; and on 19th Sept 1840(Deed Bk m pg 403)conveyed 66 3/4 acres of land to William Morford whereas it was with the understanding and agreement between said parties that in consequence of the said Daniel Morford's having conveyed said land to the said Aaron Morford and William Morford for a nominal sum the said Aaron and William Morford bind themselves to pay annually 1/3rd of the proceeds of said land to Daniel Morford as long as he shall live for his support and support of his wife Margaret and should the said Daniel Morford died before said Margaret Morford then the said Aaron and William Morford are to advance the said 1/3rd of the proceeds of the land annually to the said Margaret Morford for her support as long as she shall live.

Recorded 11th day of January 1841 John Payne B.C.C.

Note: the description of said land mentioned above is described in another document exactly as same land Daniel Morford and wife Margaret purchased from Philip Buckner, no I must be wrong on that) Or is it? on the outside margin of this document is this: Instrument del'd to owner 21st January 1842.

note: the above is the document I have that supports my belief that this is Daniel Morford b 1760/1 Pa and wife Margaret who became my great great grand parents. And were the parents of my William George or George William Morford b 1804 died in the late fall of 1850 in Bracken County, Ky--had married in 1839 Sarah "Sally-Sallie" Wilson

Vi Mofford Neeb.

But is it Proof and enough Proof??

Problem: I find it unlikely (as of Sept-1980) that Margaret had Chn. When she was Past age 40. as would be the case if she were the mother of Wm. Geo/George William b 1804 & Aaron b 1807. V.N. It's possible bHW rang a bell doing the alley research. "a" Squire Osborn" and Downing signed Consent or bond or whatever when Mary Ann Downing married George William Mofford/Morford in Bracken Co, Ky 2[illegible] Aug 1867.

Of Course Downing turns out to be Mary Ann's father James Downing.
